TWO COLORED ATTORNEY IN THE CASE

Billiard Handicap Tournament to End this Week—Sherman H. Dudley to be in the City Next Week—Mrs. S. Johnson, the Successful Undertaker.

(By Cary B. Lewis.)

(Freeman Bureau, 3000 State Street, Phone Douglass 8058; Automatic 72-384.)

CHICAGO, ILL. (Special,), Nov. 22.

After one weeks incarceration in the Cook county jail, Jack Johnson was liberated on Friday last, through the efforts, influence and legal acumen of Hon. Edward H. Wright and W. G. Anderson. Mr. Johnson, at the beginning of his trouble, secured an array of white lawyers, who, presumably, were exerting every effort to secure his liberty on bail.

After all of the efforts of Jack Johnson's supposed white friends had failed, it fell to these two colored lawyers, Edward H. Wright and W. G. Anderson, to put the champion in position to gather around his family side, with his loving mother and sister, who labored unceasingly and spent sleepless nights in their earnest desire to secure liberty of son and brother.

It has been thought, and in fact, said, by many that Jack Johnson had neither faith, confidence nor respect for colored professional men and that early in his case it was suggested to him by a close friend that he employ a colored lawyer and he is quoted as having said, "No Negro lawyer for me." We are not prepared to say that this statement is true; it may be said, however, that if Mr. Johnson's past record with respect to colored professional men is to be taken as a criterion, very little defense could be offered in his behalf. We are glad, however, that at the crucial moment, and after ceaseless efforts upon the part of his supposed white friends—and we use "supposed" advisedly—had failed, it fell to the lot of Messrs. Anderson and Wright, men whose legal ability and integrity has never been questioned, to snatch the champion from his predicament and place about his head the hallowed wreath of liberty.

Too much cannot be said in commendation of the work accomplished by these two distinguished lawyers in the extricating of Jack Johnson from prison. Only those who were in immediate confidence of his counsellors themselves will ever be able to appreciate the uphill journey and difficult task which Messrs. Wright and Anderson had to go through in order to secure Johnson's release.

We previously said that too much can not be said of the lawyers in having accomplished this difficult task, for the reason that justice, as far as the Federal government was concerned, seemed to have been stifled with prejudice and every possible impediment, whether legal or illegal, just or unjust, were placed in the path of their success; yet these attorneys fought unceasingly against great and difficult odds and finally succeeded and triumphed in the justice o ftheir cause.

We do not know how Mr. Johnson feels about the situation with respect to his lawyers. It may be said, however, in passing, that his best evidence of intelligence can be shown by his placing his destiny, as far as this case is concerned, in the hands of these two gentlemen who enjoy the highest respect and confidence of bench, bar and laymen.

Hon. Edward H. Wright has, on a number of occasions, been entrusted by the suffrage of the people, with high and responsible office. He was the first and only Negro to serve as president of the Cook county board of commissioners and from the files of the daily papers of this city, it can be shown that in so serving, he did credit to the cause he represented and was an honor to the race to which he is allied by blood and sympathy. He has always been in the forefront in matters affecting the race, and because of his conservative attitude and careful advice upon questions of racial importance, he has ever been regarded as a man whose wisdom, forethought, and advice were of great consideration. A number of notable cases of great legal importance stands also on the ledger side to his credit and no one who knows Edward H. Wright, be he friend or foe, will question his integrity or honesty.

Hon. W. G. Anderson, who was the first colored lawyer to get in the case and who afterwards enlisted the services of Mr. Wright, is well known in the legal world, not only in Chicago, but in the Northwest. Mr. Anderson enjoys a national reputation as a habeas corpus lawyer, having carried to a successful termination some of the mots noted cases which have occupied legal attention in Cook county in the past fifteen years. He occupies the position of one of the foremost habeas corpus lawyers in this country.

Through Mr. Anderson's legal acumen, Banker Spaulding secured his liberty from the Joliet penitentiary. A little later Mr. Anderson won the celebrated Captain Streeter case. He has also the credit of being the only lawyer thus far to get a client out of the penitentiary who had been convicted on the white slave charge.

Mr. Anderson is an astute student, a careful and cautious lawyer with remarkable ability n determining intricate and technical law. He received his education in this city, and in his early effort, studied law under John Barton Payne. Mr. Anderson was at one time private secretary to the Hon. Roger Sullivan, a position which he held with credit and honor.

Mrs. S. Johnson, the Undertaker.

In the recent report of Mr. L. W. Washington upon the number of Negroes who are in business, nearly every phase of commercial life is represented. It is an admirable compilation of the number of Negroes that are actively engaged in all kinds of honorable and legitimate business, as well as professional activities.

Among those that are very successful are the undertakers. Among the leaders we can safely mention Mrs. S. Johnson. She was at one time located at Twenty-seventh and State streets. In the rush of business south, she took the lead and moved i nthe Thirty-third block, No. 3311 State street.

Securing a commodious building, she immediately had it renovated for the special purpose of an undertaking establishment. There she has an up-to-date office, with Miss Holiday as bookkeeper and secretary. Connected also is a private chapel. Mrs. Johnson saw that in a large city, where there is such a great demand for private funerals, that such a chapel was necessary and hers is one of the most appropriate and best fitted in the city.

While Mrs. Johnson has always had a good trade among all classes of people, she has had great cause for rejoicing in that her business is steadily on the increase. We know it to be a fact that during the past several months, Mrs. Johnson has had charge of funerals from some of the leading families in the city of Chicago, and is also handling shipping service from all parts of the country. She has in her employ a most reliable and intelligent embalmer who holds a state license and is a past manager in handling funerals. Mr. Richard Taylor is her assistant.

It might be mentioned in passing that in our observations we note two well-managed funerals by Mrs. Johnson. They were those of Mrs. Lillian Davis and Officer Hatcher. They were conducted in such a manner that nothing but the highest praise has come to Mrs. Johnson; which indicates not only the public approval of her establishment, but that she will continue to be in demand for her services. Her rates are very reasonable and she gives the best funeral car and carriages of any undertaker in Chicago.

Mrs. Johnson is a thorough business woman. She stands highly in the community. She takes an active part in all things that are for the best interest of her race. Such a woman is deserving of a liberal patronage.

Tournament Handicap.

Quite the most interesting thing along State street among the men is the tournament handicap contest which is going on at Mr. George W. Holt's place at 3004 State street. Eight of the best billiard players in Chicago, it is said, are in the game. The games started November 3, and will end this week. In the contest are Howard Bynum, George W. Holt, H. F. Catlin, Doc. Smith, Wm. Adams, Edward Howard, Wm. Coleman and John Nixon. Each man plays the other and there will be forty-nine games. The winner will have the title of amateur champion billiard player of Chicago. He will be entitled to play in other cities, such as Louisville, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Detroit, Milwaukee, New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Washington. The winner of all the cities will be given a diamond billiard cue stick pin. For further information, write Mr. George W. Holt, 3004 State street, Chicago.

S. H. Dudley in the City.

Sherman H. Dudley will be in the city next week for five days at the Globe theater. It being the only show on the road, the colored people of Chicago will most likely pack the theater each night. "Dr. Beans From Boston" is the name of the vehicle. See Dudley and Patrick, the mule; hear Troy and the big choruses, and don't fail to see and hear Miss Lottie Grady, the leading lady, who is a Chicago girl.

Baker Hotel.

Mrs. Hattie Baker, of 3612 Wabash avenue, has leased the Dumas hotel, and it will be known as the Baker hotel. It is located right in the heart of Chicago, near the elevated road, State and Indiana car lines. It is well known to city and transcient boarders. The Baker hotel is commodious in every respect; the rooms are large and airy, private bath and steam heat and meals furnished upon application. One of the features of the Baker hotel is the accommodations it has for dancing and banquets. Two of the largest banquets held in the city this season were held in the banquet parlor o fthe Baker hotel; one to Bishop Alexander Walters, of New York City, and the other to Mr. James A. Ross, of Buffalo, N. Y. The appointments and accommodations are the married people can always be secured at best in the city. Rooms for single and the Baker hotel.

Mr. Garfield Wilson, the leading dancing master of the city, will give a dancing party on Thanksgiving night at the New Lincoln Dance Hall, Wabash avenue and Twenty-ninth street. It will be the first big social function to be given in the new place, and Mr. Wilson's entire dancing class will be present. His class has grown so large that an extra event at his regular dancing school makes the room too small. The decorations will be elaborate and there will be the largest sitting orchestra ever heard in Chicago. The grand march will be led by Mr. Wilson and Miss India Deming. Her gown, as well as others, will be made from the latest creations from Paris, France. Thanksgiving night, November 28. Be there.

Ready For New Years.

Already the proprietors of the various cafes are making preparations for their patrons for New Year's night. Especially is this true at the Mineral Springs cafe, of which "Billy" Lewis is the proprietor. Tables already are being spoken for by those that like entertainment and music during the holidays, and especially during the New Year's night. Special music will be heard at Lewis' up until 3 o'clock a. m.

Mrs. Bessie Trotter Craft, sister of Editor Monroe Trotter, of the Boston Guardian, was tendered a swell social function last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Bentley, wife of the noted dental surgeon. Twenty-three of the leading society girls and matrons were present at the luncheon and were gowned in the height of style. Ten courses were served, and following the dinner, sentiments were read on marriage. Some were humorous and others serious. Mrs. Cecil Johnson Mozee was voted honors for reading the best sentiment, and Mrs. Myrtle Fry, Mrs. Edward H. Morris and Miss Garnetta Tibbs were voted honors for reading the second best sentiments. Dr. Charles E. Bentley, Mr. Henry Craft and Mr. Cary B. Lewis were the tellers. In point of brilliancy and fashion, it was the leading social affair of the season.

Jack Johnson won his case in Judge Hopkin's court, before a jury, for assaulting a photographer of the American newspaper. Mr. Johnson is at home, suffering with a sprained ankle, so the report runs.

• • •

Mrs. E. Randolph, 3254 South Wabash avenue, has neatly furnished rooms with modern conveniences, bath, electric light and stea mheat. Most desirable place in a splendid neighborhood. Half block from elevated railroad and one block from the State street line. Both phones.

• • •

Dr. A. B. McKissack, of Durango, Mex., will eat his Thanksgiving turkey with Mr. Alfred Anderson, of Provident hospital.

• • •

Miss Bennie Stoval and Mr. Lee Tobin are engaged and their wedding will take place early in December.

• • •

Mrs. Gladys Reece, of New York City, is in the city visiting her mother and father at 3333 State street. She will remain until after Thanksgiving.

• • •

Mr. Cary B. Lewis may eat dinner with his mother and father on Thanksgiving, at Louisville, Ky., returning by way of Indianapolis to see Mr. Knox.

• • •

Miss Butler, of Cincinnati, O., is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Randolph, Thirty-third street and Wabash avenue.

• • •

Dr. U. G. Baily writes The Freeman correspondent from Berlin, Germany that he is having the time of his life, and at the same time is putting in some licks at the best medical hospitals.

• • •

Mrs. Marie Burton Hyram, the noted soprano singer, is the proud mother of a very beautiful baby boy. Dr. Daniel Williams says that it is one of the finest babies he ever saw.

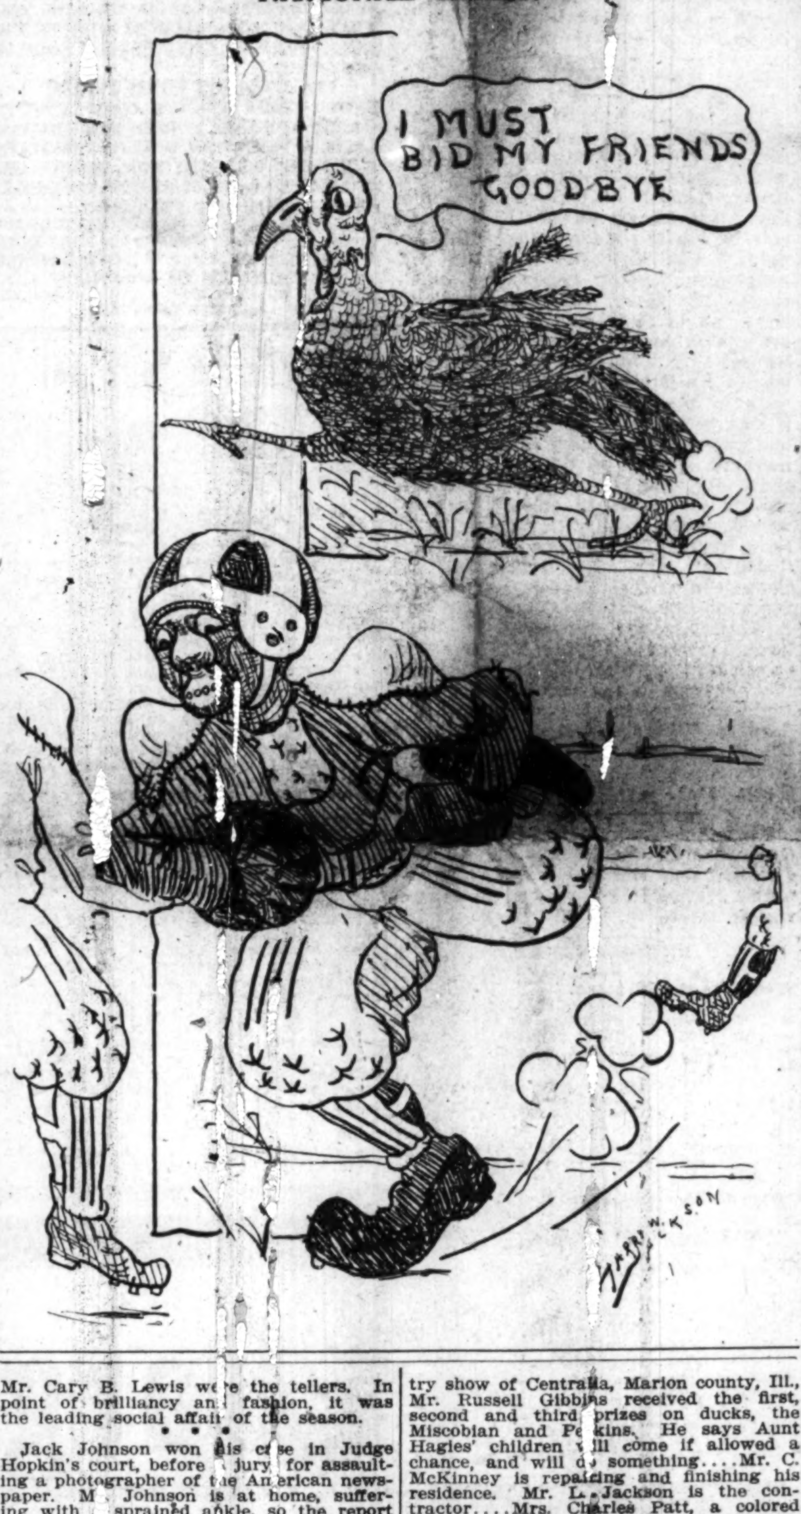
• • •

Mr. Tenan Jones, proprietor of the Elite cafe, entertained Messrs. Edward H. Wright and W. G. Anderson at dinner on last Saturday night. Messrs. Wood, Lewis and Fields were in the party. A delicious dinner and toasts to the liberation of Jack Johnson are pleasant memories of the occasion.

• • •

Misses Lula Coates, Abie Mitchell and Caretta Day are among the celebrities that are in the city this week and the "boys" are making it very pleasant for the well-known actresses. Miss Coates is in vaudeville with her two boys only, and will be seen at a number of the big houses here and elsewhere.

NATIONAL GAMES.



CENTRALIA, ILL.

Special to THE FREEMAN.

The Second Baptist church has carried on a revival for the past two weeks and made six or eight converts. Five were baptized last Sunday. The revival was conducted by Rev. Allison....At the poultry show of Centralia, Marion county, Ill., Mr. Russell Gibbins received the first, second and third prizes on ducks, the Miscobian and Perkins. He says Aunt Hagies' children will come if allowed a chance, and will do something....Mr. C. McKinney is repairing and finishing his residence. Mr. L. Jackson is the contractor....Mrs. Charles Patt, a colored man of Centralia, has invented a keyless lock and has a patent on it. It is strange to say that the white papers of Centralia write about the invention and the Centralia capitalists organizing for the manufacture and sale of the lock, but never once say that it was a black man's invention. They are very jealous of outside capitalists who are writing to Mr. Patt about the invention and want to get hold of it, and yet no one knows that it belongs to a black man. This has been going on for some time, but Mr. Patt is a standpatter. Good for him, etc., but if he had committed some crime it would have been published in big letters....The W. L. C. Club met at the home of Mrs. L. Offord, and quite a number of the members were present. After the business was finished, the hostess conducted the guests to the dining room, where a delicious luncheon was served....Mrs. M. Dunbar went to New Orleans on Monday to visit her parents, and she will remain there the greater part of the winter....Masters N. Calloway and V. Rogers, two graduates of Lincoln Institute at Jefferson City, Mo., came home on a vacation to remain until after the holidays. They sa ythey will know it all by that time....Mr. L. Leak, of Ripley, Tenn., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Leak, and will stay for an indefinite period....Miss Adline Leak, student of Lincoln Institute, Jefferson City, Mo., writes to her parents that she is progressing nicely and is very much delighted with her studies....Mr. Robert Johnson, who works on the transfer, is laid up with a sprained ankle.

JACKSONVILLE, ILL.

By Nellie Early, 565 Sharp Street.

Special to THE FREEMAN.

Mrs. Ramey and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ellen Ramey, of Mexico, Mo., were the guests recently of her son, Mr. Ed Ramey, and wife....The Young People's Elite Club met November 7 with Miss Birdie Oglesby on South Church street. A very pleasant meeting was enjoyed b yall....The regular monthly meeting of the C. W. B. M. was held Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Robinson, 483 South Clay avenue. An excellent program was rendered by the members, under the direction of the president, Nellie Early, which is as follows: Opening song service; prayer, Mrs. A. Dabney; Bible reading, thirty-second chapter of Genises, Nellie Early; Reading, Mrs. H. Davis; reading, Mrs. A. Dabney; closing song. An able address on "Christ's Method of Teaching" was delivered by Rev. Harlis....Miss Ethel Jones, who has been very ill, is able to be about again....A lemon social was held recently at Mt. Emery Baptist church. Miss Irene Russell and Mrs. Charles Biggs received prizes.

KENTUCKY METROPOLIS

Y. M. C. A. MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN HAS BEEN LAUNCHED

FOREIGN MISSION ROOMS HAVE CLOSED

Young Girl Murdered by her Friend who Afterward Attempts Suicide—Thanksgiving Dinner for Newsboys—Dudley to Appear on December 8.

(Lee L. Brown, 1006 W. Chestnut St.)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Special.

The great Y. M. C. A. membership campaign has been launched. With the building almost completed, Secretary Bullock is making strenuous efforts to have a large number of boys and men ready as members on the opening day.

• • •

The foreign mission rooms in Louisville have been closed and Secretary L. G. Jordan and all his force are ready to leave for Philadelphia. We all hate to see the "Steam Engine," as Rev. Jordan is often called, leave us. During his sojourn in Louisville he has been a useful man, not only along his line of work, but as a citizen, taking part in every good movement that affected the race.

• • •

A pretty young colored girl was shot and killed by her friend in a local cafe last week. She had been in the city only a short while. The man, after shooting her, turned the revolver on himself. He is not seriously hurt and will be brought to trial in a short while, charged with murder in the first degree.

• • •

The talk of the town is the football game on Thanksgiving day between the Cane Club and Alpha Omega teams. The boys expect to have a great game.

• • •

The well-known theatrical star, S. H. Dudley with his company of high-class artists, are booked to appear in Louisville the week of December 8th. They will appear at the Walnut Street theater. Mr. Shaw, manager of this playhouse, deserves special mention in this column for his treatment of colored patrons.

• • •

At last Louisville is to have a real colored hotel, located in the Douglass building on West Walnut street.

• • •

A farewell reception was tendered Rev. L. G. Jordan at Calvary Baptist church, Tuesday night.

• • •

Rev. Johnson, pastor of the Chestnut Street Baptist church, is in Henderson, Ky., assisting in a revival at the First Baptist church.

• • •

Mr. P. A. Reese, the well-known shoemaker of West Chestnut street, is seriously ill at his home.

• • •

The Y. W. C. A. held an interesting meeting this week. These good ladies merit the praise of the public in their effort to provide a building for our young women.

• • •

Quite a number of receptions have been planned for the visitors who will be in the city next week to spend Thanksgiving vacation.

• • •

Will Grundy, colored, who walks on crutches, was given a verdict for $5,885.60 against the Louisville Fire Brick Works by a jury in Judge Field's court. He sued for $11,050, alleging a mud-mixer exploded, throwing him to the ground and injuring him about the legs and body.

• • •

Mrs. Bessie L. Allen probation officer oft he Juvenile Court, and the friend of the colored newsboys, will give her annual Thanksgiving dinner at the U. B. F. Hall, on Thanksgiving day. It is indeed a grand sight to see these little urchins gathered around the table, enjoying a meal good enough for a king, with all the delicacies of the season.

• • •

The Child Welfare Exhibit to be held in Louisville next week will indeed be an interesting exhibition. For many months the committee has been collecting data that will be worth going to see. There will be a chorus of a large number of colored children. The doors will be thrown open to the public. Every parent in Louisville should make it a point to attend one of the sessions.

• • •

Senator Ed. Green, of Chicago, Ill., has been in the city for a number of days, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coles, of Eighth and Walnut streets. It is to be regretted that the people of Chicago did not send the distinguished lawyer back to the legislature. It will be remembered with please that while he was in Springfield, he fought like a trojan in the interest of his race.

• • •

The Hotel Fields is about to open its doors at the Douglas building. Every modern convenience, bath, hot and cold water, light, comfortable, spacious rooms, etc., will be furnished its patrons. The location is excellent from the standpoint of convenience. Car lines making it possible to ride within one block of any corner of the city, pass the door, 726 West Walnut street.

• • •

The Ohio Tailoring Co. will give to each person who calls there a souvenir, free. To the one holding the lucky number there will be given a prize to the value of one thousand dollars. They are on exhibition at Bensinger's, across the street from our place. You don't have to buy anything, just come and leave your name and address. This is a chance to really and truly get something for nothing, excepting the trouble of coming to our place, 324 West Market street.

• • •

Two weeks ago a large crowd of persons gathered at the Queen chapel to pay tribute to the late Coleridge Taylor. How fitting that last Sunday, in the same church, that a cbrowd equally as large, gathered to pay tribute to the memory of the late Prof. F. S. Delaney. The Bass Cleff Club had charge of the exercises. They paid respects to his memory in song and verse. The eulogy, by Rev. Clark, the pastor, and the addresses by Prof. Simpson and Mr. Bullock will never be forgotten.

• • •

We happened to pass Tenth and Chestnut streets last Sunday afternoon, and glanced into the basement of the public library and a great sight met our eyes. It was a large crowd of our school boys gathered together in a meeting. These littel men were listening to Prof. John Clarke, who was telling them of the great advantages of being a member of the Y. M. C. A. The boys were divided into groups according to the schools. Prof. Matthews, Prof. Meyzeek and other teachers were there to cheer the boys on by their presence.

• • •

Mr. John Phillips, proprietor of the old reliable shaving parlor at 102 West Green street, had occasion to draw the color line last week, when a dirty, greasy white man took a seat in a chair in his shop. Mr. Phillips politely informed the gent that there was a white barber shop at First and Jefferson streets, where he could be waited on, but that this institution was for clean colored people. Mr. Phillips deserves great credit for maintaining a first-class place for his own people, from which filthy whites are cut out.

WATT TERRY CONTROLS REAL ESTATE AGGREGATING $500,000.

To Whom It May Concern:

Mr. Watt Terry, of Brockton, Mass., the young Negro real estate agent, who has had such an exceptional career, stated at the recent meeting of the National Negro Business League, that he controlled real estate aggregating $500,000. There were those disposed to discredit Mr. Terry's statement at the time, so much so that the executive committee of the Business League, through its secretary, made a special report in open session with regards thereto.

Since the Chicago meeting Dr. Booker T. Washington, president of the National Negro Business League, has been quietly investigating the matter at the hands of responsible Brockton people. A letter just received from the secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, of Brockton (white), states: "Some weeks ago I wrote you relative to our mutual friend's (Mr. Watt Terry's) business, but now I want to enclose the clipping from the tax list which you will see is positive evidence that at the time the taxes were recorred he was carrying well on towards $300,000, and I know his large purchase of $120,000 occurred since then, so with the estimated valuation of these properties, in the minds of our best real estate men, I am thoroughly satisfied that the amounts reported are very little, if any, overstated. It is certainly a most wonderful development in a few years."

It must be gratifying to the Negro people everywhere to learn that one of their race has achieved so wonderfully in so short a space of time. Mr. Terry is an alert, aggressive, but sincerely modest, young man.

PEORIA, ILL.

On the sick list are Miss Arzilia Scott, Mrs. Bailey, Mr. Henry Granes, Mr. Geo. Butler, Mrs. Curtis and Mr. Joseph H. Felds....Mr. William Thompson, of Ottuma, Iowa, spent a few days at the Country Club last week, visiting his son, who is manager of the club....Mr. Willie Alexander, headwaiter at the Country Club, has resigned his position to accept a very responsible place in the city. The Freeman wishes Mr. Alexander much success....Mr. Carl Fields made a flying trip to the city Friday....Mrs. F. D. Banks, of Adams street, was a pleasant caller on Mrs. Cattons a few evenings past....Dr. Asque was nicely entertained at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Meeks on November 9....Drs. Catton, Shepherd and Asque are all enjoying good practice, which speaks well for Peoria's colored physicians....The two Negro churches of Peoria can boast of very refined ministers, and much good work should be done at both churches.....Mr. James Comer reports business good....Rev. S. Jones and Mrs. Shepherd, superintendent of the Ward chapel Sunday school, attended Teachers' Institute at Champaign, November 8....Mr. Frank Hutchinson, who has been away from the city for two months on business, has returned home....Don't forget to attend the "Ole Skul at Hickory Hollow" at Ward's chapel, November 21. Mrs. B. H. West, manager....Both of the colored churches will prepare nice programs for Thanksgiving. Those who do not attend will miss rare treats....Call Bluff 1097 and get the Freeman....Mr. Woodson is being congratulated for the manner in which his barber shop is conducted....Mrs. Maggie Reid, the insurance agent, is doing grand work for the race.

IRONDALE, OHIO.

They say no Washingtonian stands in great danger of being killed by an assassin's bullet, if carrying around a big speech is any prophylactic against such attacks.

Bishop Walters, as the acknowledged "referee" of the Wilson administration in matters dealing with the race's relation thereunto, will be an inspiring figure.

* * *

An editor might have a chance to get into heaven if his staff correspondents would only send in "copy" that does not have to be rewritten, "bluepenciled" or thrown away.

* * *

Our lady friends will probably not heed the warning furnished by the fact that a male female impersonator the other day died from the effects of wearing a corset too tightly laced.

* * *

A shortage of white women is reported in South Africa, where the domestic service is largely performed by Kaffir boys. One hundred thousand white women are called for at once.

* * *

"Back to the farm" is a keynote that should rally the young men of the South, where other lines of endeavor are not so willingly opened unto us. The call of corn, cotton, fruit and poultry should not fall upon deaf ears.

* * *

The postal service offers a splendid opportunity for our educated young men. The color line is not rigidly drawn, as in some other branches of employment, and a chance to rise is afforded those who evince a high order of intelligence in the discharge of their duties.

* * *

An intelligent Negro can render personal service without being a "flunkey." No decent white man has any respect for a grinning ape, who annoys him with needless attentions, when the hope of a "tip" is plainly in evidence. Dignified service brings the largest measure of appreciation, and proper rewards will follow.

* * *

President Taft, without notice, attended a service in New York, the other day, and caught the preacher with a "Bull Moose" sermon on tap, with no alternative deliverance in his inside pocket. We know some pulpiteers of color who would never have been caught napping in such a fashion. They would have had "something equally as good" carefully stored up in their ready-reckoning "think-piece."

* * *

Dr. Booker T. Washington's article in the November Century, on "Is the Negro Receiving a Fair Chance?" is regarded as being, in many respects, the most striking and significant utterance the Tuskegee "Wizard" has ever made on certain phases of the race problem. It has been widely read and will have a far-reaching influence for good among the people who have to sit in judgment upon the black man's case.

* * *

An advertisement emanating from Southern Pines, N. C., states that young colored men are in constant demand throughout the South as carpenters, bricklayers, painters, tinners, electricians and other forms of high-class industry. The wages run from $3 to $5 per day of eight or nine hours. With such excellent schools as Tuskegee Institute and others of its type all over the Southland, it ought not to be difficult for the race to supply the demand for these skilled artisans. Colored labor will yet prove to be the backbone of the prosperity of the South.

* * *

The president of the National Negro Press Association desires that the representatives on the executive committee for each State send in at once the names of all the Negro papers published in his State. In addition to the regular "stand-bys," new papers are started and others fall by the wayside. The president, corresponding secretary and chairman of the executive committee have a constant need for such a list. It frequently happens that calls are made for information that find us "shy" on facts that it is humiliating to confess that we are not in possession of.

* * *

That there must be a higher regard for honesty in the handling of the people's money by officials in churches, lodges, schools and business enterprises is the lesson taught by the prompt suspension of Bishop George W. Stewart, of the C. M. E. Church. A trial committee of twelve ministers, at the request of three hundred laymen, investigated charges of malfeasance lodged against the prelate, and the evidence made it necessary to relieve him of his episcopal duties until the matter can be finally passed upon by the General Conference of the church in 1914. The Negro race can never be a factor in the larger affairs of mankind until we learn how to handle trust money without allowing any of it to stick to our fingers. Let us "render unto Caesar that which is Caesar's," and we shall get all that is coming to us in the long run.

KANSAS CITY, MO.

The Baltimore hotel waiters have all gotten together again. Mr. White, the owner of the Baltimore Shirt Co., who operates four stores here, opened up on the 8th of September with a fine hotel known as the Blue Goose cafe, which has made Kansas City famous. The Hon. G. O. Smith, the well-known eastern headwaiter, is in charge, and to say that the service is tiptop would be putting it mildly. We are taking care of the best people of Kansas City. We have all of the Baltimore waiters and when the guests walk in here it is just the same as if they were in the old Baltimore, and many of the guests have left the Baltimore on account of the service since the white waiters have been there. If reports are true, the colored waiters will have the hotel (Baltimore) back again soon. The waiters of the Blue Goose cafe have the opening ball of the season on the 6th inst., and it was a pronounced success. The music for the occasion was furnished by Williams' orchestra, Claude Williams director, and the music he furnished on that occasion is the talk of the town. The committee in charge consisted of Spencer, Wilson and Montgomery..... Mr. W. M. McKnight, formerly of the Baltimore, is at the White hotel (Blue Goose cafe).

Former Consul Richard Theodore Greener sees that long-awaited "vindication" just ahead. Wouldn't it be poetic justice to return him to Vladivostok.

SHERMAN, TEX.

REKLAW'S SUPERIOR TOOTH CLEANER.

The finest in the world of its kind. I found nothing to equal it.—C. W. Scott, 2921 Armour Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

My teeth were so black until they had turned blue almost. They are perfectly white now.—Mrs. Joseph More, 1686 East Eighty-first street, Cleveland, O.

My teeth were real yellow; now look at them after washing them twice with Walker's Superior Tooth Cleaner.—Miss Margaret Jackson.

Removes everything unnatural from off and between the teeth. If this is harmful something to eat is harmful to the teeth. In five minutes after washing the teeth half of the blackness will be removed. It is guaranteed to make the teeth perfectly white. As a rule when the dentist cleans the teeth he scrapes them and that takes the gloss off the enamel, but this will clean them and leave the enamel uninjured. Nothing will add to the beauty of a young lady or gentleman more than a set of pretty white teeth.

It even improves the appearance of the face more than the clothes do.

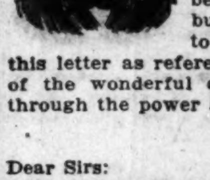
READ THE WORDS OF OTHERS

Gentlemen:

I cannot begin to tell you all the benefits I have received since the arrival of the two specimens of Loadstones you sent me.



For many years I was convinced that no person lived who was more unfortunate than myself. Loss in business, death of loved ones and other troubles too numerous to mention, were driving me to a state of frenzy. A friend told me to write you for information regarding the system of two Loadstones and their power.

As a last resort I did so, and later purchased two of them. Since then the great change in my career has been so remarkable as to be almost beyond belief. My business increased rapidly, and not a thing has occurred to mar my state of happiness. You are at liberty to use this letter as reference, for I believe it is my duty to let the world know of the wonderful change in my life, that I believe was brought about through the power and influence of two Loadstones.

Frank Temey,
Babylon, N. Y.

Dear Sirs:

Several weeks ago I foolishly laid the chamois bag containing the two Loadstones on the dresser and forgot them. Trouble began as of old; my husband was fretful and finding fault with everything. I was all out of sorts myself and wondered what had happened to cause so much discord all at once. Finally I remembered the Loadstones and began to search for them. A few days later I found them tucked away in my machine drawer where one of the children had put them. Now everything, as far as I am concerned, is moving along nicely, but my husband, who laughed when the Loadstones first arrived, has changed his tune, and has sent you an order for a pair for himself.

LADIES LOOK! Every lady can have a beautiful and luxuriant head of hair if she uses a MAGIC. After a shampoo or bath the Magic dries the hair, removing the dandruff; and it will straighten the curliest head of hair.

The Magic will not burn or injure the hair, because the comb is never heated. The steel heating bar which irons the hair, is alone, put into the flame of the alcohol or gas heater.

The Aluminum Comb is easily detached from the heating bar, then, after the bar is heated the comb goes back into place and is held by a turn of the handle.

The Magic Heater is also suitable for curling irons, has a cover and can be carried in a handbag.

PENSACOLA, FLA.

Pensacola High School—The Black Patti Company—General and Social News.

By Walker W. Thomas.

The Pensacola High School opened its doors last Monday, November 18. This is one of the first three-story buildings to be given or built for colored children of this city in the history of the board of public instruction. This building is a beautiful one and is located in the western portion of the city, and contains twelve rooms. The attendance is 400. The colored people are very proud of this beautiful building. We should congratulate Prof. A. L. Kirksey and Prof. M. N. M. Bennett, who are greatly responsible for this handsome school building, which cost $10,000. We must also congratulate these gentlemen for the great work which they have been doing for the past eight years in the uplift of the colored people of this city. These men deserve great credit from the colored people here for the great work they have been doing....Mr. Ellis Tonie, a former Pensacola boy, was in the city visiting his parents. Mr. Tonie has been out of the city for the past ten years attending the various colored universities of the country and has made good everywhere he went. His many friends here are very proud of Mr. Tonie's achievements. He is now taking a medical course at Shaw's University....The El Centro Cafe, 520 North DeVillie street, has thrown open its doors to the public. This is the only colored cafe in the city that is open all night. The proprietor, Walker W. Thomas, will be glad to see his many friends at his new place of business....The Black Patti show is to pay this city a visit on Wednesday, November 20. The details of this show will be reported in next week's issue. The local folks are making great plans to entertain these great show people on the night they are in the city....The G. O. P. Social Club will entertain on Wednesday night at the K. of P. Hall. This will be the first dance given by this club this season, and it promises to be one of the grandest affairs given this season. Cards are being issued. Committee: Frank M. Sawyer, John F. Lewey....I only hope that I can find all those people who wanted a Freeman so bad a few months ago....The Royal Seminole Social Club entertained last week at Catholic Hall, on West Government street. Quite a large number of the younger set was present, this being one of the first dances given this season by this club. It proved to be a grand affair. All reported a very delightful time. Music was furnished by the None Barris Orchestra. Committee: F. J. Robinson, W. L. Johnson, J. B. Gray Thomas....The Collins Orchestra will give their first ball Thursday night, Thanksgiving, at the K. of P. Hall. Look for the notices. This will be one of the grand winter affairs given this season....Miss Allie Patterson, a graduate of the Pensacola High School last year, is now attending Knoxville College, in Knoxville, Tenn. Miss Patterson will be greatly missed by her many friends. We all wish for her the very best of success.....The Imperial Pressing Club, under the management of Mr. Sol Relph, has opened its doors at 407 North Guillnarde. Mr. Relph will be glad to gain the patronage of his many friends....A cadet company has been organized at the Pensacola High School. There are four companies in all, under the instruction of Major General Horace D. Goode. The leading officials of this movement are Walker W. Thomas, Leon Levard, Colbette, Andre Preer, Samuel Betts, Arthur and Umstead Thompson, Wilbur Sheppard, Clarence Allen and John Reese....Mrs. Viola Hillard, who was badly burned last month, is somewhat improving, to the delight of her many friends....Mrs. Ardis, of Normal, Ala., is in the city as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Herman Grice, at their beautiful home on North Coyle street. Mrs. Ardis is much pleased with our city, where she has made quite a large number of friends....An old folks' concert was given at the Pensacola Normal School building last Wednesday night. A large audience was in attendance. All reported a very delightful evening. This concert was under the Young Women's Club of the Normal School....Mr. and Mrs. Uriel Thomas, of St. Louis, Mo., and little son, Uriel, Jr., will spend the holidays here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Thomas, Mr. Uriel Thomas' parents....Miss Theresa Thomas and Mr. Benjamin Brown were married last Sunday, at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Charlie Thomas, of North De Villier street. Quite a large number of close friends were present, who wish this popular young couple a long and happy married life. They received a large number of beautiful presents....Joseph Morris has opened a first-class meat market on West Belmont street, at the old Serra stand. Mr. Morris will be glad to gain the patronage of his many friends....Mrs. Mary Thomas, who has been on the sick list for the past four weeks, is now out, to the delight of her many friends....Messrs. Daniel and James Brown are now visiting friends in Jacksonville, Fla. Their plans are to make the Florida metropolis their future home....Master Aaron Johnson has been on the sick list. His many little friends are glad to see him out again....Mrs. Charles Knox, the widow of the late stevedore, Charles Knox, who was killed a few weeks ago on the L. & N. pier, is now suing the company for $15,000. Her many friends will be glad to learn of victory....Father D. D. Moore has been on the sick list for the past three months. His many friends will be glad to learn of his recovery....Mrs. Archie Tony has returned from Norfolk, Va., where she has been visiting relatives and friends. She reported a very delightful visit while in the Virginia city....Mrs. J. E. Sheppard is somewhat improving, after a few weeks of illness. Her many friends are glad to learn of her improvement. ....Don't forget to buy all your newspapers at the El Centro News and Book Store, at 520 North DeVillier street. Walker W. Thomas, proprietor....Miss Nora Johnson has returned from Norfolk, Va., where she has been visiting relatives. She reported a very delightful stay while in the north....The first military dance given this season will be by Company B, of the Pensacola High School. Captain Walker W. Thomas and Lieutenant Leon Vard Colbette are making great plans to make this affair one of the best given this season.... Lamar Roberts has returned from Montgomery, Ala., where he has been visiting relatives and friends. His many friends are glad to see him back....Don't forget to report all of your news to Walker W. Thomas before Wednesday of each week.

WITH THE "FOURTH ESTATE."

News of Our Newspaper Workers—Published Under Direction of the National Negro Press Association.

Corresponding Secretary Henry Allen Boyd, who is "some secretary, too," is receiving letters daily from editors, publishers and correspondents requesting that they be enrolled as members of the National Negro Press Association. Enclosed is the annual fee, of $1.00, which pays the postage, printing and other necessary expenses of the organization. Every one of the brethren should be on the list and put in his appearance at Philadelphia, next August.

* * *

Dr. Booker T. Washington has enthusiastically endorsed the press association. He recognizes publicity as the principal necessity to the success of every individual, organization or cause.

* * *

A. J. Smitherman, of Muscogee Okla., and John L. Thompson, of Des Moines, Ia., leaders in the Western Press Association, are active forces also in the National Negro Press Association. The objects of the two associations are one and the same.

* * *

In all probabiltiy the new publicity law concerning newspapers will be knocked out in the Supreme Court, where a case is now pending to test its constitutionality. Postmaster-General Hitchcock is quoted as saying that the new provision, making all sorts of absurd requirements, imposes a needless restriction upon the press of the country.

* * *

Get a grip upon the circulation of your community, brethren of the press. It is a matter of diligence, persistence and good sense, together with a delivery of the goods. The heads or responsible members of every family are connected in some way with some interest in your town. They can be reached through the church, the lodge, business or professional or social connection. Get hold of the right string, and pull it for all it is worth. It will pay big. Both the advertising and the circulation of your paper can be boosted by getting around in lively fashion among these various classes, and keeping their affairs before the public. Don't waste time in complaining. Offer a journal that is worth while and push it into the popular notice. That is the way to make your business a "go."

* * *

The standardization of advertising is one of the issues that the press association is working on. In the country our papers vary from 15 cents to $1.00 per unit for advertising charges, when the difference in circulation does not justify such difference in prices. This is a serious matter and requires sober attention.

* * *

A Negro associated Press, with a somewhat slower time, but equally as efficient in covering our field as the white organization, is one of the possibilities that may grow out of the N. N. P. A. There is no reason why with proper facilities, that an yitem of important news may not reach two hundred centers of publicity at the same moment. Keep this in your noddle, fellow craftsmen.

* * *

The executive committee is a "dandy."

* * *

The association's new stationery has been issued to the officers from the press of the National Baptist Publication House, at Nashville, through the courtesy of Corresponding Secretary Henry Allen Boyd. It makes the organization look as it means business.

* * *

Washington, D. C., with a Negro population of 100,000, offers a rich field for a progressive Negro newspaper. A live corporation, giving the people the real news in an impartial and attractive manner, could build up a circulation of 10,000 in six months. The people of the capitol are a reading people, they have money, and the business men can be persuaded to advertise, if you can show them that it is worth while. Problem: Where is the man to lead the movement toward filling this longfelt want?

* * *

The Star of Zion has a new press.

* * *

The Cleveland Journal may be revived by N. D. Brascher, W. T. Blue, John P. Green and others. Cleveland ought to be able to support two race papers.

* * *

The "hell box" is the proper receptacle for "handkerchief-head" ideas. Consign hem there at once.

* * *

Energetic newsdealers are needed in every town to push the papers that appeal to the citizens of that particular locality, and who will send orders for special papers that any one may call for. The newsdealer is the natural handmaiden to the journalistic profession, and trouble should be taken to develop a good staff at the various stragetic points throughout the country. Another job cut out for the National Negro Press Association!

* * *

On the 1st of July, 1912, 28,144 newspapers and periodicals were enjoying second-class mail privileges. Of these about three hundred were published by Negroes. There is ample room for more, and they can be good, too.

* * *

President R. W. Thompson is anxious that the efforts of the National Negro Press Association be supplemented by local press associations, which he urges should be established in all communities where there are a smany as six persons actively engaged in any form of newspaper work. Through these organizations a local journalistic spirit is generated, better service is given to the people, and the individuals are knitted more closely together in a social and fraternal way. When a newspaper man strikes a town he feels proud of his calling when a virile local press fraternity extends him a hearty welcome. These associations will send delegates to the national body each year, and thus strengthen the arms of the men who are trying to carry on the work in the larger field. Now that the election is over, the President is hopeful that the leaders in the various cities and towns will get busy on the local association idea and keep the national officers in touch with what is being done.

* * *

The time is coming when the journalist will not be able to just pick up the profession and get by with it on his nerve and wits. The journalist of the future will have to go to school or take a specific course of study, just as is true of other callings. Journalism is a science and an art, and it must be learned thoroughly, if success is to be attained.

* * *

Texarkana, Texas, is mentioned as one of the places that would like to entertain the proposed mid-winter meeting of the executive committee of the N. N. P. A. An invitation has been extended through the effervescent W. E. King, editor of the Dallas Express.

* * *

Editors of race papers, especially those in sympathy with the aims of the National Negro Press Association, are urged to make liberal use of the paragraphs appearing from time to time in this department. In this way the craft will come to know itself better, and the people will be brought into closer touch with the men who make newspapers and what they are laboring to accomplish.

For the sake of the wonderful new hair that this will create for you, send us your order today.

We need agents. They can make big money selling our preparations. Write us about our proposition.

Above is a portrait of Madam Brice, the remarkable woman who discovered and perfected Africa-America Scalp Food. She has probably done more for her people than any other woman in Indiana, and it was only after years of effort that she was able to offer them this perfect scalp food. She adds her personal guarantee to that of the Always Young Cream Co. that this Scalp Food will do all that is claimed for it.

Notice that Mme. Brice does not show her 57 years because of the constant use of the Always Young Cream. This is another one of her wonderful preparations that she has demonstrated over and over again to be far ahead of anything of its kind. Price 50c a Jar, or two for 75c

You owe this to your children, care for the scalp, and to do this you should not fail to be a constant user of the wonderful preparation, the Africa-America Scalp Food, which has full guarantee under the Pure Drug Act, June 30, 1906. Serial 44868.

Madam Brice six months ago wore a wig, and now by the use of this Scalp Food has a heavy suit of hair. She is touring the United States to show the people that she will and does back up all the company says. 500 agents wanted at once. Liberal commissien. Don't delay. Sold by

A bad month for turkeys, eh?

Weather delightful; butter firm; eggs merely a mirage.

The sun seems to be shining on Jack Johnson once more. Now if he will be moderate.

Bishop Alexander Walters as "referee" of the incoming administration "looks the part" to a nicety.

If we are in doubt as to what to be thankful for, let us be thankful that it is no worse than it is with us.

There are countries that would not have respected Schrank's insanity. It is America that sees one man as another before the law.

We use to wade in the canal to catch crawfish and muscles—but that was long ago. They now hunt larger "game." We can't see that there is an improvement in the catch.

Talk prosperity; talk progress; talk business; talk racial confidence; then act in accordance with your talk. Therein lies our hope for a happy fufure.

According to information, Joseph B. Kealing is now the administrator of the Republican party's official affairs in Indiana. He is closing up the "estate."

The Y. M. C. A. finished a stiff fight for membership this week. Above one hundred and sixty new names were added to the roll. The club led by George L. Knox succeeded in securing the largest number of new members. Secretary Taylor hopes to make this body the largest in the country.

Jack Johnson won his case where he was accused of violating the Mann white slave law. Now if he can get along with his would-be photographer, who wants $10,000 for the pass Johnson made at him with his walking stick. His fortune, we take it, is in very bad repair and needs his immediate attention.

Well, if Schrank was insane, or is insane, that's about all that can be made out of it. Although it seems queer enough that he had sense enough to follow Mr. Roosevelt over the country for the express purpose of shooting him. It is also said that Mr. Schrank managed his own affairs. However, it is the business of the experts to decide the degree of Schrank's responsibility.

Getting more like the white folk every day. John Phillips, a Negro barber of Louisville, Ky., told a white man who had on dirty clothes that there was a white barber shop near by when he took a seat in one of his chairs. The Negro barber shop is conducted in a first-class style, catering to a patronage in kind. The Louisville people are applauding Mr. Phillips for the stand he took. Perhaps it is not definitely known just how clean a man should be when entering a barber shop. He, at least, should not be so dirty as to attract special attention. His form should not be imprinted in the chair when he leaves it.

John G. Jones, of Chicago, writing from the ancient city of Luxemburg, in Europe, expresses himself as being delighted with his visit. Mr. Jones attended a Masonic meeting. Many leading men of the order throughout Europe were in attendance. He has it that the colored Masons in the United States benefited by the meeting. Just how the Negro Masons of the United States benefited perhaps will be divulged in the lodge rooms only. We take it that the general race will also benefit, since it would not be possible to help so large a body of men without influence for good going out in a large way. We congratulate Mr. Jones in that he has been an instrument for a kind of good that is so much needed, strengthening the bond of fellowship of mankind, including the Negroes. Mr. Jones is a distinguished citizen in his home, and worthy of his office as a representative to the notable gathering of Masons.

The little, old, nasty canal has just been trying itself. The other day, when the waterworks company concluded to let the water out, four bodies were found—a colored girl, a colored man, a white man, a white baby. The discoveries were the sensation of the week. Guess the old canal will have to go. It is getting far too convenient for the good of the city's reputation. Many articles of value were found that evidently had been thrown away in the hasty flight of robbers from the clutches of the police. At one time it was thought there could something be made of the stream—a sort of Venice canal proposition. No; it insists on being filthy and mangy—a fitting receptable of the odds and ends of discarded and stolen plunder, suggesting itself to murderers as a voiceless repository—telling no tales. And no one seems disturbed about it. How many more bodies must be found before something is done about it?

The National Negro Press Association seems to have struck a forward stride, and is rapidly coming into its own. The men of the craft should hold up the hands of President R. W. Thompson, Secretary Hehry Allen Boyd, Executive Committee Chairman N. B. Dodson and the rest of the progressive officers who are piloting this promising organization. They are going ahead, and are rightly paying no attention to the "calamity howlers" who would impede their efforts. What the Press Association is to become depends wholly upon the profession itself. The race paper is the most potent force in the work of racial uplift, and it can only reach its proper place in the procession by getting into the closest possible touch with the people and with one another. Practically speaking, "The Fourth Estate," to which Edmund Burke spoke so eloquently in the British Parliament, is "The First Estate" in the advancement of the American Negro. The Negro journal introduces the Negro race to its progressive self.

REPUBLICANS HELPED MR. WILSON TO VICTORY.

In the previous issue we spoke of the elements that combined to make up the large vote of the Progressive party. We, however, did not refer to a class of Republican voters that went over to the aid of the Democrats for the time being. This fact was so apparent, so plain to see, that it did not impress itself like the ones which required some little effort for detection. In a manner, it was understood.

These Republicans indeed loved their country more, and not their party less. They saw it their duty to step out of their party, destroying it for the time, if necessary, in order that the greater good prevail. And, speaking of heroism, it was here—not in that all-compelling form, but it was here just the same.

It is said that no less than 500,000 of these "life-savers" lined up with the Democracy for Governor Wilson. We think the half has not been told. Citizens in every community refused to take chances of possible political eruption; they blocked it in that negative way which is often more effectual than any other way. A deep conviction abided that the third-term movement was a menace, and no less than the personality of Mr. Roosevelt. The combination was too strong for cautious, careful men—the sponsors of our liberties.

Perhaps it sounds oddly enough to speak of the sponsors of liberty in a republic, where the voice of the majority is the ruling voice. The past campaign taught a few lessons, pressed them home at least, illustrating the fact that careless majorities are to be met with some sort of tactics that preserves the state to its original intent. The minority has some inherent rights and these must be safeguarded.

The million or more, the saviors in this instance, proved a splendid reserve force, and all the more efficient because it was a voluntary force—minute-men who responded to the call of danger—the "silent" call, audible alone to those to whom it most concerned. It was Lord Nelson who said to his men at Trafalgar, "England expects every man to do his duty." In our case it was not necessary to say even so much as that. Every man of the salvation corps knew his duty instinctively. The fine intelligences of dangers threaded everywhere more subtle than Marconi's. If men grew supersensitive, then it was as Oliver Goldsmith has it, "they erred on virtue's side." But they did not err. They took no blind chances, just as they would take none in their business affairs when prosperous. Our country was prosperous, is yet prosperous, and will continue so if the possibility of the unexpected being injected into governmental affairs is kept at a minimum.

IN MEMORY OF S. COLERIDGE-TAYLOR.

LONDON, England.—In remembrance of the late Samuel Coleridge-Taylor, and to furnish funds for the wife and two young children of the famous Negro composer, a big concert was given in Albert hall on Friday, November 22, when the largest choir numerically that has ever appeared in the hall sang.

The program was made up exclusively of the dead composer's compositions, and there were three conductors—Sir Frederick Bridge, Sir Charles Stanford and Mr. Landon Ronald. The first part consisted of orchestral items and the second part of "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" and the "Death of Minnehaha."

Among the prominent men identified with the movement were the Earl of Pembroke (president), Col. Herbert A. Walters, Sir Hubert Parry, Sir Frederick Cowen, D. McNaught, the Earl of Shaftesbury, the Earl of Plymouth, Lord Alverstone, the Hon. Harry Lawson (M. P.), Sir Walter Parratt, Sir George Martin, Sir A. Campbell Mackensie, Sir Henry Wood, Dr. Walford Davies, Dr. Harford Lloyd, W. Boosey, A. Boosey, Alfred Listleton, Augustus Littleton, Algeron Ashton and Edward German.

THE FREEMAN WILL ENJOY THANKSGIVING DAY WITH A KEENER ZEST

(By W. T.)

If Fisk University will select a colored president.

• • •

If they will just give Jack Johnson a square deal.

• • •

If the Frederick Douglass homestead is cleared of debt.

• • •

When another Negro marches into the halls of Congress.

• • •

When expanded Zion elects her full quota of ten bishops.

• • •

When a Negro newspaper is found in every Negro household.

• • •

When the Negro votes as freely in New Orleans as in New Rork.

• • •

If another colored cadet is enrolled at West Point or Annapolis.

• • •

If Tuskegee Institute is given an endowment fund of $5,000,000.

• • •

If Mrs. Mary Church Terrell and her fair sisters are given the ballot.

• • •

If every fellow will feel, with us, that he has much to be thankful for.

• • •

If the name of Registrar J. C. Napier is allowed to remain on our paper money.

• • •

If political, religious, social and journalistic "four flushers" are sent to the rear.

• • •

If it can be discerned that Sir Knight George W. Ellis is happy over the situation.

• • •

If the Negro crowds would seek the farm more assiduously than the great cities.

• • •

If the foes of industrial education will see the wisdom of taking to the tall timber.

• • •

If Kelly Miller will consent to be the lightning calculator of the new "Black Cabinet."

• • •

If hustling Phil Brown "gets his'n" in a chunk before the Taft administration goes out.

• • •

If the so-called "smart Negroes" will learn the wisdom of following intelligent leadership.

• • •

When the State Normal School at Frankfort, Ky., gets a president that will "stay put."

• • •

If the Odd Fellowship could be made stronger in the North, to avoid sectional top-heaviness.

• • •

If Negro merchants will advertise their wares as liberally as do the merchants of other races.

• • •

When permanent peace is established in the schools of Washington, Indianapolis and Louisville.

• • •

If more of our girls will study domestic science, including domestic art and practical housekeeping.

• • •

If the race will encourage the development of more young business men of the Henry Allen Boyd type.

• • •

If a new deal means the retirement of some dead timber in high places, which is much better out than in.

• • •

If John Mitchell will find time to honor the National Association of Negro Bankers with his engaging presence.

• • •

If colored men, with or without means, will discover in time that the Negro woman is the best woman on earth.

• • •

When thieves, be they bishops, elders, class leaders, trustees or whatnot, are put out of our churches in a hurry.

• • •

If the veteran T. Thomas Fortune is permitted to emerge from his dungeon in the editorial cellar of the New York Age.

• • •

If John C. Dancy will give a brief account of "What I Did as Field Marshal of the Negro Troops in the Campaign of 1912."

• • •

If Richard Theodore Greener should be restored to the consular service of the United States at Vladivostok or elsewhere.

• • •

If the Philadelphia Business League will get together and give the National Business League the "time of its life" next August.

• • •

When personal organs, ru nfor the sole purpose of airing the grievances of their owners, are boycotted by the long-suffering public.

• • •

If Fred R. Moore will forgive Henry Lincoln Johnson, Ben Davis, W. L. Houston and R. W. Thompson for what he has done to them.

• • •

If the enemies of Cyrus Field Adams will adhere religiously to the Marquis of Queensbury rules and refrain from hitting below the belt.

• • •

If W. Allison Sweeny will give us a tip as to the date of the appearance of his forthcoming "History of the Black People of America."

• • •

If that versatile scribe and all-around newspaper man, W. Milton Lewis, should receive a hurry-up call to official station at Washington.

• • •

If the Negro will stand up courageously for the few white statesmen who risk their political future by standing up boldly for the colored race.

• • •

If that eminent subject of King George, the Rev. Jay Albert Johnson, can be induced to become a naturalized citizen of the United States.

• • •

If Dr. Booker T. Washington's sage counsel is followed by the masses and the classes of the Negro race, North and South, East and West.

• • •

If a Negro is named as a member of the new Industrial Commission.

• • •

If the Amsterdam News and the New York Age will star jointly for one night only in their famous impersonation of "Damon and Pythias."

• • •

If the people will pay their bill for the Negro newspaper as regularly and as fully as they pay their grocer, butcher, coal man or gas man.

• • •

If the Christian men and women will build Y. M. C. A. buildings for colored people in every community where we have a goodly population.

• • •

If that resourceful and eloquent master of the King's English, Dr. W. T. Vernon, will take the floor and tell the country just how it happened.

• • •

If Gen. Joseph L. Jones is made supreme chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, when Brother S. W. Green has had enough of the honor.

• • •

If J. H. Washington will just send us one of those massive 72-pound watermelons he is to grow in large numbers next season at Tuskegee Institute.

• • •

If Gov. P. B. S. Pinchback recovers his vocabulary in time to tell us what the Republican party must do to enable it to "come back" in 1914 and 1916.

• • •

If Bishop W. H. Heard is assigned to a home district, and a younger prelate sent to do the work of the A. M. E. church in the Dark Continent.

• • •

If folks who like to have fun with Editor Harry C. Smith will forget that he wrote a pathetic ballad in his callow days called "Be True, Bright Eyes."

• • •

If correct business methods are insisted upon in our lodges, churches and clubs, and only men and women of proven honesty allowed to handle money.

• • •

If the Negro race refuses to get "cold feet," just because a Democratic administration has been ordered into power by a plurality of the American people.

• • •

If the gilt-edged service of Cary B. Lewis, the general promoter of politics, society and business, is adequately recognized by the incoming administration.

• • •

If the Boston Guardian will learn to treat public men with ordinary decency, even when it fails to agree with their various ideas on the issues of the day.

• • •

If day teachers are forbidden to teach in night schools, when the roster is full of eligibles from the normal schools, who need both the experience and the money.

• • •

If the redoubtable George W. Chivis will be satisfied with anything less than the collectorship of internal revenue at Honolulu—one of his numerous "homes."

• • •

If Gilchrist Stewart will tell the difference between a lemon and that advisory committee chairmanship which he was handed at the eleventh hour in the campaign.

• • •

If the Interstate Commerce Commission will insist that southern railroads, that "jim-crow" the Negro, shall provide first-class accommodations for a first-class fare.

• • •

When anonymous spewers of billingsgate, writing from the nation's capital, are squelched by the thoughtful and high-purposed editors of the race press in this country.

• • •

If "The Sage of the Potomac" will demonstrate his capacity to successfully manage one race paper before he undertakes to carry the burden of running six at a clip.

• • •

If the Washington school patrons will rally around and properly appreciate the culture, moral worth and executive ability of Assistant Superintendent Roscoe Conkling Bruce.

• • •

If boarding house landladies will be kind enough to give their patrons a little something to eat, a few minutes of gaslight and a chance to warm their toes once in a great while.

• • •

If the men's fraternities will take their cue from the Woman's Federation at Hampton last summer, to the end that they may acquire the art of transacting business in an orderly fashion.

• • •

If the Public Health Service, after abolishing the public drinking cup, will now get busy after the southern railroads that refuse to keep the toilets of Negro waiting rooms in a sanitary condition.

• • •

If Elwood C. Knox, Tim Owsley and S. H. Dudley will complete a chain of colored theaters, extending from ocean to ocean, handling, at lucrative salaries, all of the Afro-American stars of stageland.

• • •

If that dusky J. Pierpont Morgan, John Mitchell, will show the colored folks of Indianapolis, Washington, New York, Boston and Chicago how to operate and sustain the credit of a high-class race bank.

• • •

If Negroes, given places of honor and emolument to represent their race, will not forget the source of their power, and manage to find some pleasure in the society of their brethren of humbler station.

• • •

If the Negro strike-breakers will break into the dining rooms of the leading hotels and cafes—and do so well that they can stay there, in preference to cheap foreigners and the Negro-hating labor unionists.

• • •

If the inimitable Bert Williams and Adia Overton Walker were at the head of a great Negro road show, playing the first-class houses, and showing the white people what the best of us can do toward holding a mirror up to nature.

• • •

If the Odd Fellows' Journal is stationed permanently at Washington and broadened into a great national disseminator of general news, for the benefit of the 100,000 Negroes of the District of Columbia and for the half-million brethren of the "three links" throughout the country.

• • •

If certain alleged supporters of President Taft in the last campaign will figure out how much better off things would have gone had they fought the Democrats and Bull Moosers as bitterly as they did some of the capable men in their own camp.

• • •

If Chris Perry, W. Calvin Chase, A. J. Golden, J. H. Murphy, Fred R. Moore and one or two others of the craft will reach down and help up the National Negro Press Association—at least until they can develop an exclusively "editorial association," in keeping with their dignity and standing in the journalistic world.

• • •

If President-elect Wilson, early in the game, will just tell Vardaman, Hoke Smith, Davis, Heflin, Dixon and Bourbons of their stripe that they are not to be his advisers on his Negro policy, and that they are to keep beautifully silent on the race problem while he is in the White House.

• • •

If Bishop Walters, J. Milton Waldron, R. N. Wood, James L. Curtis, James C. Matthews, James A. Ross, William Monroe Trotter, W. E. B. DuBois and other Democratic leaders will work in harmony for the recognition of the race, remembering that factionalism will rob us of the Negro's just share of the fruits of the Wilson victory.

SENATE AVENUE THEATER.

Watch bills for big Thanksgiving day special. Custer's Last Fight, December 3, 1912.

STANDARD THEATER, FT. WORTH, TEXAS.

The doors of the Standard theater, corner of Twelfth and Commerce streets, were thrown open this week, and bright lights shone like brilliant diamonds in the lobbies, while the anxious crowds waited at the ticket office for admission to witness the initial performance of the McDaniel Stock Company. The cast is as follows: Harris and Harris, R. M. Ford, Kid Jackson, Miss L. Randolph, Miss Toy Chappelle, S. R. McDaniel, Ollie Cox, Miss Maggie Williams, little Votty, the wonder, L. B. McCoy and O. H. McDaniel.

Mr. McCoy, the manager of the house, was well pleased with the turnout. He sends regards to all friends in and out of the profession.

THE OTIS L. ADAMS AMUSEMENT COMPANY.

The show is improving every day. Bob Boon in still on the job, playing his bottles and his slide trombone is a feature. Harry (Boots) Jones singing "Pork Chops" and making good. The team of Frog Wiggins and wife is still making good. Mr. Ed. Ives, better known as Monkey Bunch, will join us this week, also Miss Bessie Robertson. The team of Pitt and Westcott will be seen in vaudeville again as soon as Adams' Amusement Company closes. Ask The Freeman.

IN MARSHALL, TEX.

Smart Set Company, Headed by S. Tutt Whitney.

A bigger drawing card than ever, the "Mayor of Newton," is the play written Br. Mr. Whitney, assisted by his brother, J. Homer Tutt, music by Russell Smith and T. L. Comell. Mr. Whitney is assisted by J. Homer Tutt, his straight man; Miss Blanch Thompson, his leading lady, and the strongest cast and chorus. The company has played to capacity wherever they have appeared. Next year Mr. Whitney will be seen in his new show. J. Homer Tutt is a rose in the South. Miss Cleo Mitchell, that angel child, makes a hit singing "The Spooney Rag." Miss Ora Dunlop, of Indianapolis, met the company in this city. Pedro Manuel, please come again. Prof. Russell Smith, you will never be forgotten. Mr. Leigh Whipper, traveling representative S. H. Dudley circuit, will do good business in the South. Best regards to Mr. Whitney and brother and Lawrence Williams.

CIRCLE THEATER, PHILADELPHIA

Mattie Phillips and her Three Whirlwinds carry the day.

Prof. Lee and his Manikins make a hit and his act not only amused the children but brought roars of applause from the adults.

Blanche Deas, whose second engagement went even better than the first, was successful in taking many encores during the week.

Miss Mattie Phillips and her company, in a whirlwind act, carried away the honors of the bill. Miss Mattie is as supple as ever, and her acrobatic stunts added much to the attractiveness of the act.

As a screamer, Glenn and Glenn have the act, which is a continuous laugh. Miss Cora is really the most accomplished comedienne ever playing here, and Willie—well, he is nothing less than a comedy twin.

For the week of November 18: Gulfport and Wallace, John Glass, the Misses King and Gee, Evon and her Pixie Girls, Mamie Butler, make up the show.

Leon, magician and ventriloquist, at the Rex theater, Winston-Salem, N. C., this week. Would like to know why John E. Cooper, magician, doesn't write.

The sister team, Russell and Brown, have just closed a successful week at the Pekin theater, Richmond, and are at the American theater, Petersburg, Va.

B. J. Jenkins is at home in Orangeburg, S. C., resting up. He will begin rehearsing his new act in a few days, and will be ready for booking November 30.

Allen's Troubadours played to S. R. O. at Rome, Ga. Allen's Troubadours Band and Orchestra, also performers, are a box office attraction. All well, and say Hello! to all friends.

While in Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simpson, of the Four Brass Men, were entertained by Johnson and Watts, a swell supper being served and a very enjoyable evening passed.

John Gertrude monologue comedian, Dunbar theater, Columbus, O., is going nicely in his own new song, "I Like to Be a Zulu Moss." Next week Crown Garden theater, Indianapolis.

John W. Dennis and Mrs. Hattie Payton are doing vaudeville at the Central theater, Dallas, Texas. They have a very clever talking and singing act. They are known as Dennis and Peyton.

Happy Simpson week of November 11 at Olympia theater, Philadelphia, Pa. The first week in and out of the barrel. The week of the 18th, the monologue. Nuf sed. Star theater, Pittsburgh, Pa., to follow.

Eldridge and English are now with A. G. Allen's Minstrels, and send regards to J. M. Busby's Minstrel bunch, also Erichson's Alabama Minstrels. Mrs. W. L. Eldridge is now visiting Mrs. Chas. English in Pine Bluff.

Albert Johnson, the pianist, is again in Chicago, after an absence of more than a year. He has some offers in the far West, but Albarro thinks perhaps he will stick around the big city until something turns up in his favor.

P. G. Lowerq says that his coming show will be the swellest that ever happened—fine wardrobe, fine paper, a fine car and all the rest of it. They will open at Carrollton, Ill., November 25. P. G. is noted for his good entertainments.

Richard Jackson has charge of the traps at the Our theater, Indianapolis. He is at home with his splendid new big drum and the other accessories of his outfit. The lady pianist is also clever. The two put up a good orchestra: Mr. Jackson is rather versatile, playing a good clarinet when there's something doing in his line.

"Mme. Anita Patti Brown, known as the Bronze Tetrazini, the greatest coloratura soprano soloist before the public." The above has appeared in print concerning the well-known singer. She appeared in Indianapolis last week at Allen Chapel church, where she formerly sang as a choir girl. After a few years of absence she came back in triumph, a very queen of song. The church failed to care queen of song. The church failed to hold those who would hear her sing again since she is the grand lady, that she is. They went wild over the madam.

Thos. P. Kellq's Big Colored Carnival begins rehearsing in Chicago, Thursday, November 28. The company is to have an innovation in parade suits and stage wardrobes for ladies and gentlemen. It is booked solid in the best houses. It will carry an all-feature band. Some of the people engaged are Marsh Craig, Arthur White, Junk Edwards, Jas. C. Moore, Ferd Garland, Alonzo Williams, Dixie White, Louise Garland, Hattie Edwards. Will open December 9.

THE NEW CROWN GARDEN.

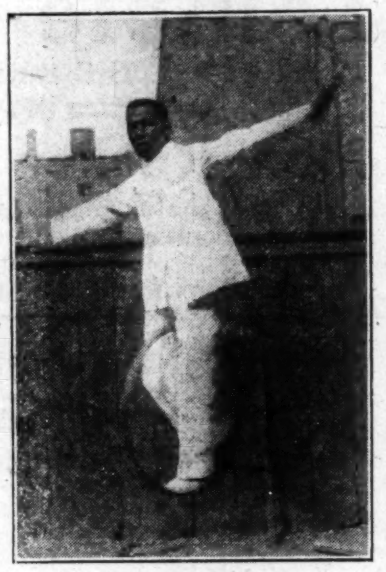
Offers a Bill of Many Surprises—The Best Singing Show Ever Been at the Crown—Every Act Makes Good and the Audience Goes Home Satisfied.

Tolliver and Chappelle

Offered a real novelty in a singing act, an dthe first of its kind seen here. Each member of this act is a splendid singer with a voice that is pleasing in every way. Mr. Tolliver portrays the character of a Mexican, while his partner takes the character of an Indian squaw. Tolliver and Chappelle have the best colored singing novelty act in vaudeville, because this act has everything in it that goes in the making of art and refinement. The act made good, and the patrons of the Crown Garden will be only too glad when they play a return date, if they are to hear more of as good singing and tuneful music as Tolliver and Chapelle offer.

Allie Young

Opens the evening's entertainment, doing twelve minutes on a slack wire. Mr. Young is a very clever artist in his line, and from the amount of applause he received, one could easily see the audience enjoyed his work.



OLLIE YOUNG,
The Cat of the Wire.

Archie Jones

Character comedian, was very clever. His style of work is the first of the kind that we have seen in Indianapolis. He does a real Jew, that is, he looks like a real Jew after he is made up. Mr. Jones received his share of the applause.

The Muses

Offer an act filled with fun and plenty of eccentric comedy. Mr. Muse has a rare, rich voice, the kind that is not often heard in any vaudeville house. His "Old Black Joe" song stopped the show, and it was impossible for him to continue his act until he sang it again. And when he sang "Asleep in the Deep" it was worth the kiss his partner gave him for the trial.

Kelly and Kelly With Tim Owsley

Pulled some laughing act. The audience fairly elled with delight. Kelly and Kelly are two clever people, and every one knows what Tim Owsley can do as a comedian. There is no one can beat him. The audience went home saying the best show in weeks. Tim Owsley is truly a "wizard," as he knows just what to do, on and off the stage.

LOUISVILLE, KY.

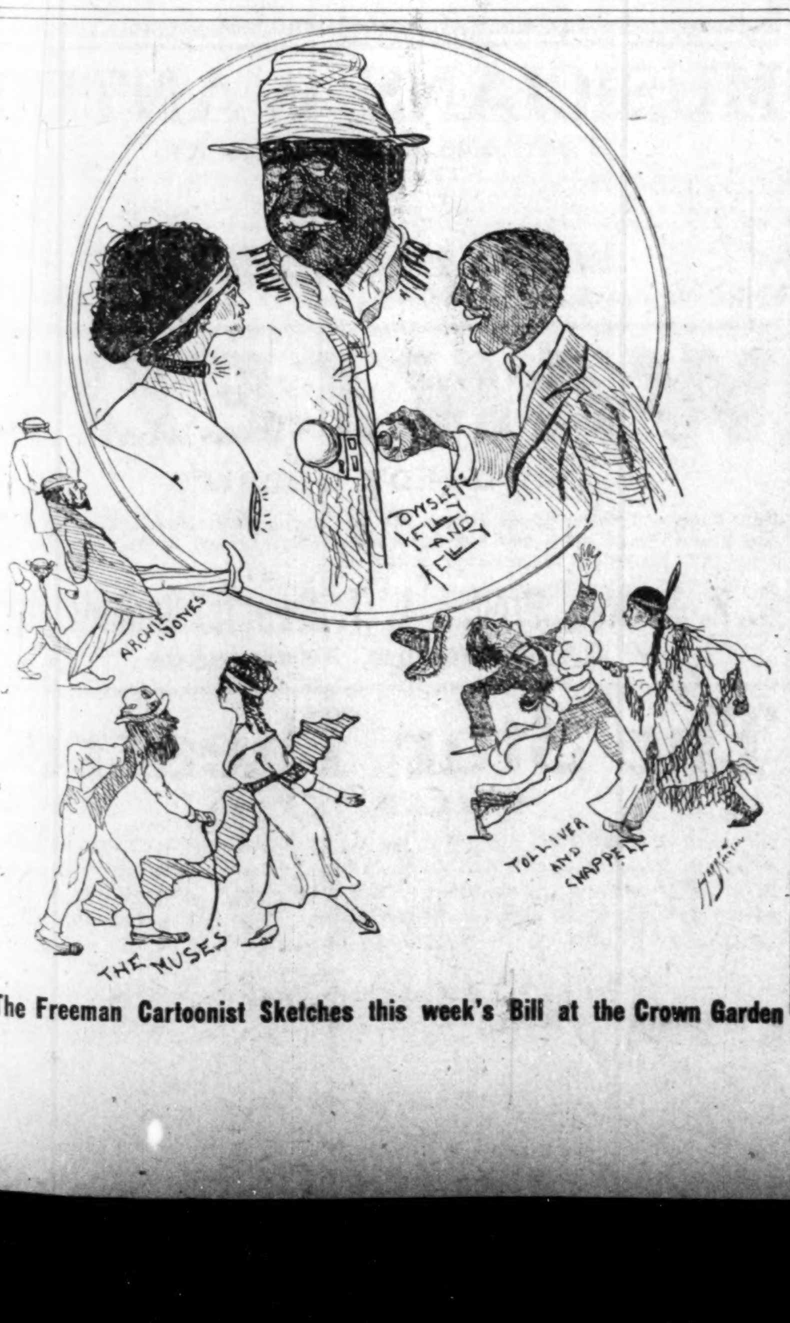
"The Rose Buds."

Awhirlwind of fun, a medley of captivating music, an entrancing vision of fair women and one of the most beautiful scenic productons on the road are some of the alluring promises made by the management of "The Rose Buds," Curtin and Williams' record-breaking extravaganza company will play its local engagement in this city next week at the Buckingham theater. There is no question but that Messrs. Curtin and Williams have invested more capital in this production than any other burlesque company in America and the results show that it is a wise managerial move. Merit is bound to win in any line and especially in theatrical business. This has been amply proven in the case of "The Rose Buds," which has attracted capacity audiences everywhere, solely on account of the excelence of the performances given. Joe Adams, undoubtedly one of the brightest and most popular comedians on the American stage, heads the list of principals, appearing in his artistic tramp delineation; the Livingston Family offer one of the greatest acrobatic specialties on record, known as their own European novelty act, which has been a perfect furore during their recent tour of the western states. Other valued members of the company are Gruet and Gruet, the clever black-face comedians; handsome Helen Van Buren, who, in addition to her many physical charms, is possessed of a remarkably sweet voice, which is heard to the best advantage in many popular numbers; Clayton Frye, Laura Houston, Mabel Hazelton, Pat C. Maher, Armada, the dancing violinist, and several other popular favorites, will be seen in addition to Curtin and Williams' prize bevy of beauty choristers; the whole forming a combination of entertainers which is difficult to duplicate in the field of modern burlesque.



The Freeman Cartoonist Sketches this week's Bill at the Crown Garden

At the Olio Theater.

The bill at the Olio this week is one of the best bills that its patrons have seen for a long time. It opens with Miss Daisy Collins, who is in her second week. The patrons received her with great applause, her work being something out of the ordinary to the patrons of the Olio, and her costumes are gorgeous. She opens with "I Just Can't Make My Eyes Behave," and handles it in a way that was never heard before. She closes with "I've Got the Finest Man." The next on the bil lis "Rastus Brown," one of Louisville's own boys, who has never been seen o nthe stage here before. He is known throughout the country, also "across the pond," as being the champion buck and wing dancer of th eworld. The way he hands it to our patrons is a scream. His dancing imitation of the championship baseball game is the greatest ever seen on the American stage. Rastus has a standing challenge to all comers in his line. Next on the bill is Mme. Hattie McIntosh and her picks, assisted by little Hester Kenton, who is a big feature in the act. Mrs. McIntosh made no mistake in securing little Hester, as she is a favorite with the Louisville people. Her two picks are not slow in skipping the light fantastic, and the Madam gets 'em when she sings "If You Don't Like My Peaches Don't You Shake my tree." They close the act with a big dance number, "Buckwheat Cakes," which is a scream and leaves the patrons with something to go home and dream about.

EASTERN THEATRICAL NEWS.

(By Billy E. Jones.)

Bradford's Chicken Trust Company opened at the Lyceum theater, Chicago, last week for six weeks on the W. V. A. time.

Gilmore, Kinky and Gilmore scored a big hit at the Savoy theater, Asbury Park, N. J., last week.

The Sunday night concerts at Young's Casino, New York City, including the photo plays, are making a big impression with the theater-goers. On the bill last Sunday were the Four Texas Tommys, John and Lila Moore, Ray and Ray, Wesley and White, Walsh and Redden and Blanche Deas.

The Four Black Diamonds Quartet, fine singers, are scoring a big success on the other side, playing th Sver theater, at Stockholm, Sweden. Next month at Walhalla theater, Halle-on-the-Salle.

The Dixie Serenaders this week at the Delancey Street theater, New York.

Anderson and Goins at the National theater. A big hit on Le[illegible]'s time.

Fiddler and Shelton at Lyric theater, Hoboken, N. J.

Copeland and Payton at Pantage's theater, Sacramento, Cal.

Cooper and Robison opened as one of the fourteen vaudeville acts at the Winter Garden, New York, with the Gertrude Hoffman Review Company.

The Billy Kersand Minstrels filled in for two weeks in Melbourne, Australia; but no bouquets came to the company as a whole, although the Era Comedy Quartet helped the majority get their salary.

George Johnson, the Negro street minstrel, who has entertained the highest officials with his plantation songs, as well as millions of othesr, died last Saturday of pneumonia at Boston.

Billy E. Jones, the singing comedian, is scoring three and four encores with the song hit, "Oh, That Devilish Rag," at Brooklyn this week.

Murphy and Francis this week at the Orpheum theater, Wheeling, W. Va.

Edgar Connors and Girls at the Odeon theater, Newark, N.

Orro Criswell, the singing comedienne, scored a distinct hit at the Lincoln theater on her return engagement in New York City.

Al Spencer, the well-known tenor, is filling an engagemetn in and around New Rochelle, N. Y.

The hairdressing parlors of Syphax & Downey are open for inspection to the ladies in the theatrical world. They are located at 1832 Seventh street, Washington, D. C.

James Foster, the Lone Star comedian, will fill a number of engagements in Washington, D. C., featuring some good numbers in his specialty.

The performers playing Washington, D. C., would do well to call on Mr. Billy Watts, 2220 Fourteenth street, in regards to their tailoring. His prices are reasonable.

CINCINNATI (O.) THEATRICALS.

Special to THE FREEMAN.

The Earl Burton Musical Comedy Company opened Monday night at the Pekin theater, filling a two weeks' engagement. It is safe to say that the company will do the banner week on this second engagement, as they have a good bunch of people and everyone works hard. They gave a very pleasing performance. The management is making every effort to please the patrons so they tried out this company, which proved to be a wise selection. Among the principal people in the act are Earl Burton, Helen Bombray, Chas. Meyers and Buckner and Buckner. It would be quite difficult to say who carried off the honors. The features of the turns are good singing and dancing and some real Negro comedy. This is the best bunch that has hit town lately.

NOTES.

Miss Virgie Essex is the special attraction at the matinee shows at the Pekin.

Ike Paul, the well-known comedian, has opened up a new vaudeville booking agency in this city.

Kid Love, of the well-known team of Love and Love, was compelled to return to his home in this city, owing to his serious illness.

Tommy Carter, of the Taylor-Farrell trio, is playing at the Standard theater this week. He has a host of friends in this city.

SAVOY THEATER, MEMPHIS, TENN.

This week's bill is a western drama, entitled "In the Hills," staged by our noble stage manager, Miss Laura Smith, to whom is due much credit for the way she strives to make the shows go, and for keeping new ones on hand, always producing something new. The audience shows that the show this week was a good one by their support crowding the house to S. R. O. The drama is in two acts and as usual Tommy Parker, our leading comedian, furnishes all the comedy. The rest of the cast is as follows: Mrs. Winters, Ada Aderson; Mr. Winters and Earl Walters, Maggie Payne; Margarette, Winters' daughter, Corrine Adams; Eagle Eye, Laura Smith; Nash, the Porter, Tommy Parker; Mr. Dennis, an adventurer, Geo. Lewis. The olio consisted of Ruth Anderson, Nellie Cook and Tommy Parker, with his new and late successful song, entitled "On the Mississippi" and "When Johnson Quartette Harmonizes," taking encores until he was compelled to sing "Robert E. Lee" and dance. The bunch send regards to all. Billy Reese says Hello, John Tanner, Geo. Centers and Ram Russell. Watch for the new house and grand opening. A. Barrasso, proprietor; Billy Reese, manager.

Managers, Beware!
Of the Male Member of the Team of Lewis & Lewis, Whose Cuts Appear Herewith

About three months ago I booked above act. Wired tickets ten days before time to open, also wired instruction about where to get tickets, etc , with privilege to wire MY EXPENSE anything that might occur to prevent him being on time. Act was to open on Monday; four days before Monday Lewis wired, "Be there Saturday." Act did not get in Saturday Monday came and act did not get in. Wired Lewis, "What is wrong ?" Got no answer. Three days after time to open one Mr. White came in on one of my tickets and said Lewis told him to tell me that his wife was sick. Three days later got wire from Lewis, "Tried to get team to take my place, could not do so, will come alone now." Waited several days, Lewis failed to appear. Wired him to send me my ticket, as same was void day after date of issue. Also had refund on ticket stopped. Later wrote him at his last address, also in care of The Freeman; both letters were delivered, as my return address was on both envelopes. I have waited all this time in order to give Lewis good time to square himself. I have not heard one word from him since last telegram above referred to. Am always willing to send tickets when necessary to good legitimate acts, but won't stand such actions as above. Am running this add. in the interest of managers and the profession generally. I shall run it in every colored paper of any value in the United States to show this fellow up. Ticket is worth just so much blank paper to Lewis; to me it is worth face value. It would cost Lewis just 2 cents to send same to me.

GOSSIP OF THE STAGE

Stovall and Stovall are having good luck in the South, but will soon go East.

Horace George says, I'm for music, man. Doing well—Thanks. Of the Ethiopian quartette.

The Creole Belles Comedy Company is in Marshall, Texas. The well-known E. D. Lee is manager.

Chas. H. Aldridge, late of Jones' Alabama Minstrels, is now engaged as illustrated song singer at the Princess theater, Republic, Pa.

Lew W. Henry is a hustling old soul. He is looking out for the Eastern time of the Dudley Circuit.

Little Johnnie Jones and Eva Moore are this week at the Savoy Theater, Beaver Falls, Pa., with Sharon, Pa., to follow.

Wm. A. amsey, Dudley's private secretary, asys he is sure slinging some ink, and each week his correspondence increases. Believe me, this Dudley circuit means something now.

The Ragtime Trio opened over the Ulibistic circuit again, playing return engagements. They opened last week at Port Arthur, Canada, at the Lyceum theater. This week at the Doric theater, Chisholm, Minn.

Ethiopian Serenaders of the Redpath Lyceum Bureau passed through Indianapolis last Saturday. The member sof the company are J. W. Gray, manager; Horace George, Fred Wise, Jackie Smith, basso and comedian.

The Whitman Sisters and their Toy Comedians have just finished three weeks' engagements at the Wilmington, N. C., Lyric and Queen Theaters. It was their first trip there. It was one of the most pleasant engagements during their Southern tour.

Prof. R. Pope and wife left Indianapolis last Saturday for Galesburg, Ill., for permanent residence. Prof. Pope is the well-known bandmaster of the colored band of Ringling Bros.' shows, where he has been for several years. He will act in the same capacity the coming season.

At the Globe theater, Spartansburg, S. C., this week the will is entirely new with the exception of Riddick and Ridick, Hi. Jerry Barnes, Mrs. Effie Barnes and Hilton and Hilton. The trio of Wilsons are cleaning up, and as usual, knocking them out of their seats every night.

Marvelous La Vola, slack wire king and magician, is doing nicely in vaudeville. Will soon appear on the S. H. Dudley Circuit. This act, without a doubt, is the greatest novelty act in vaudeville. It is said by press and public to be the "king of the air." Regards to Watts Brothers and Eddie Daye.

THE DENNY THEATER, OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA.

This theater was reopened on Monday, November 4, before an audience of more than five hundred people. Under the management of Wm. J. Clemons, of Palatka, Fla. Presenting strictly high-class vaudeville and showing the best motion pictures that can be seen in the Southwest. The old reliable Harry (Cabbage) Johnson is with us, and he is a scream. Dave Low and the Madame are going big. Miss Bessie Anderson is also making a hit with Oklahoma show-goers.

DEATH OF WALTER S. LYONS.

Walter S. Lyons, of the team of Lyons and Singleton, departed this life November 8, at his home, 1248 Webster street, Cleveland, O. Heart failure was the cause of death. He leaves behind his wife, known on the stage as Maud Singleton, to mourn his loss. The Imperial Quartette, managed by C. C. Curtis, consisting of James Thomas, Monroe Hector and Frank Burton, rendered the service by singing most impressive hymns. There were beautiful floral offerings. Wm. Simpson, at one time his partner, of the team of Simpson and Lyons, was an honorary pallbearer.

THE AUDITORIUM, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Everything that aided in the make-up of the program given at the Auditorium this week may rightly claim to have been of the bright and breezy order. In the list of those whose praiseworthy efforts made the performance a howling success all week were Jeff De Mount, a fat man, who easily amkes himself a storm center of laughter in comedy and song, and, besides, he is no mean banjoist; Pinky and Walker, Chinese vaudevilleans, whose impersonations were so fine that they pulled out a Chinese audience every night, and they really have no equal; Hodges and Lachman, in their musical triumph, the cat opera; Dixon and Hanson, in songs and comedy; Taylor and Taylor, in singing and eccentric dancing, who were superior artists in their line. The reappearance of Bert Whitman and her three sunbeams pleased the audience, as was demonstrated by the continued ovation every night. The electrical effects were fine. The moving pictures are always of the latest films.

THE BELMONT THEATER, PENSACOLA, FLA.

Under New Management.

The Belmont theater, formerly under the management of M. Jacoby, is now managed by Leon Loebs, who wishes it understood that it will be conducted as a first-class vaudeville house, where strict decorum and clean healthy government will at all times hold.

The Belmont is a house of about 500 capacity, built about a year ago, especially for the purpose. It is of brick and cement, thus being practically fire-proof, a very necessary condition for the safety of the patrons. Furthermore, the house will undergo some helpful changes, redecoration and so forth, adding to the convenience and beauty of the house. When finished, it will stand among the best houses of the country.

Mr. Loeb, the new manager, has had fifteen years of the show business, consesuently he is on to the ins and outs. The town is not more than 22,000 in population and of course fancy salaries can not be paid. He says, however, that good acts will probably get more time with him than with some other houses, thus making up the difference in the long run. Mr. Loeb assures the acts that they will get what he agrees to give.

Again, the manager of the Belmont is in touch with houses in Mobile and Montgomery, Alabama, also in Tampa, Florida. It is possible for him to continue the players through this chain of theaters, which would mean very much to them. The performers can see at once the advantage of this grouping of houses, whereb ythose long and expensive jumps are avoided. Mr. Loeb advances this phase to the performer, hoping that he may see it to his own interest.

OPPOSES NEGRO PRESS CRITICISMS ON JACK JOHNSON.

Chicago, Ill.

Sporting Editor of The Freeman:

Sir: Have read with much interest from time to time your comments in The Freeman anent one Jack Johnson, champion pugilist and lover of women, white and otherwise. Of the comments of the Negro press, published in your issue of November 9, the only sensible extract is that from the Chicago Defender, which is as follows:

"The mischievous manner in which the Chicago press has and is exploiting the Jack Johnson episode is not only a disgrace to the entire journalistic profession, but a crying sin against the peace of the community. It has the effect to inflame the feeling of the masses of the white race against the Negro, who is having a hard enough time as it is. If Jack Johnson has committed the orimes charged to him, he should pay the penalty, but even so, they are mere misdemeanors compared with the unpunishable felonies the press is committing against the peace of the city."

Many colored papers, preachers and other Negroes continue to harp on one line, that Johnson owes the Negro race something. I disagree utterly with that assumption. The Negro race has done nothing for Johnson, has given him nothing, aided him in no way to attain any prominence and is entitled to nothing, considered as a race. When Jack Johnson needed money to go to Australia to fight Burns, did the Negro race come forward with help, or at any other time, have they done anything for him, or any other of our big men? This idea Negroes have of criticising is too common; just as soon as a Negro, great or small falls afoul of the white man's one-sided law all the Negroes like rats deserting a sinking ship begin to outdo the white in denouncing him. Cowardly conduct I call it. So far as black women are concerned, I must say that I am proud that no black woman has lowered herself as the white woman has done to run after Jack Johnson, simply because he had money. The fact that he likes white women is no reflection on the race; you make too much of that point. Most men like fair women, if you don't believe it just go into the best Negro homes amid the blackest of the most prosperous Negro families and you will find a yellow or almost white woman occupying the leading place of wife; it was so from the time that the "sons of God looked upon the daughters of men and saw that they were fair and took unto themselves wives," as Genesis tells us, and will be so until the end.

A mulatto or octoroon woman is not a Negro, and a black man has no more right to pass up his race by marrying a mulatto or octoroon woman than he has to marry a white woman or Hindu or Chinese! If you are going in for purity of black blood go the whole distance, don't stop half way, for there will always be the lingering suspicion that you would take a white one, just as quick, if it were safe socially to do so. Johnson is a sporting man, his companions are sporting people. It is not to be expected that a man of this class will think of race improvement or such. That class of whites don't do it, either. Jack is no better nor any worse than his class, white or black. If he gets in "bad with the law" let him take his medicine, if he can't get out of it like other people have to do, but this eternal question of mixing up the race with everything he does is foolish and playing right into the white man's hands. Exactly what he wants us to do, is to acknowledge that we are not good enough to marry his old bold brazen women, while he takes great delight in ruining every black girl he can get his dirty paws upon. I must say that men like Jack Johnson must be allowed to fight out their own battles in their own way. If they lose they lose, that's all. If they win, we are that much ahead on the road to equality. The character of the woman has nothing to do with it. When white men become liberal enough to wink at mixed marriages of the lower classes, the upper classes will not be long in following suit, as society never reforms from the top.

Negro business men who have considerable dealings with white women in their business know that it is practically impossible to avoid meeting some of the class who want to "shinny on the black side of the fence," when it is dark, if he wants to shinny with them let him shinny in the open and make them shinny in the open just like Jack Johnson, and if he has to pay for it, pay for it and take his medicine. Don't let white folks bluff us all the time on this old mixed marriage question. I hope every Negro man and boy will remember the wrongs of the black woman, whether he marries one or not, and never admit for an instant that black men and black women are not good enough to mate with white men and women, for that is the whole thing in a nutshell and you know it. As long as we admit inferiority we are inferior.

Fullest freedom on this continent demands that we exercise as far as possible freedom of choice in mating as in business, voting or anything else, without any reflection whatever on our noble army of black women.

Yours truly,
G. B. ALDRICH,
Attorney at law, 319 Savage Schofield Building, Tacoma, Wash.
My wife is colored.

A MR. FAIR PLAY ON JACK JOHNSON.

A writer in the Cincinnati Enquirer signing himself as Mr. Fair Play, has the following to say on Jack Johnson's present difficulties:

In connection with Johnson's troubles the fact should not be overlooked that a lot of ill feeling has been caused by the fact that he is colored. In sport, such as boxing matches, however, there is no color line, and Johnson should be given credit for what he has done. He is the greatest fighter that ever lived. To deprive him of the championship and the glory that goes with it would be indeed quite unfair. A man who takes this view of the case writes to the sporting editor of The Enquirer as follows on the subject:

"Dear Sir—I have watched your 'All Sorts' each Sunday to see your way of figuring out the much-talked-of Jack Johnson scandal involving Lucile Cameron. I have failed to find an expression from your side. The sporting public look to you as an authority on all cases to be settled among the sports, as you always give a 'square deal.' Now, from my way of seeing things, Ido not think it does the sport any good to treat Johnson as he is being treated. It is an unfair way to try to get the championship away from the Negro. I want it back to the white man and I want it bad, but I want him to win it like he lost it. In all of Johnson's fights, as I have read the reports from men at the ringside, he has fought on the square, and he had to fight with all the odds against him. Now, to all men who want to be fair, let's give the Negro a fair deal and win back on the level.

"If we could kill or put the ban on all men who get mixed up with the opposite race we should have about one-half of our own people out of business. I want to see the championship won as it was lost—in the ring.

"Johnson has been so fair in all of his fights and has done so much, as his last fight with Flynn will show, that I hardly think you could have found another man that would have defended the sport under the same conditions as he did in Mexico.

"Johnson has proved himself a great fighter and a square sport. I want to say if the championship is won back let it come through the ring, not the courts. I have gambled all my life and always noticed the loser in the long run is the fellow who cheated."

BOXING CONTEST AT THE INDIANA THEATER.

The boxing contests at the Indiana theater last week were not what they could have been. The house was well filled with people who paid good prices to see the contests. They should have had a better run for their money. The fighters of the first two numbers should have paid the spectators to sit through their performances. The two concluding fights were better.

Kid Charleston and Lacey were pretty well matched in size. Charleston however, was clearly master from the beginning to the end. In the third round Lacey rallied a bit after John [illegible]nks had half drowned him with a bucket of water. He looked promising, getting the yells of the house to his credit. But Charleston was too regular fo rhim. He beat him back to stupidity. He dropped. 'Twas all over.

The Lowery-Brook setto was very nearly a satisfactory mill. Brooks was the toughest that ever came along. For the first few rounds he gave as good as he sent. He carried the crowd up until this time. It was Lowery's tactics which allowed him to worry himself down. Lowery being regularly trained, knows the number o frounds he can go without too much fatigue. The new fighter had no such endurance as Lowery. In the last two rounds Lowery held him up and beat him just as if he were a putty man. Brooks would not fall. Lowery seemed tempted to go behind him to see what was holding him up. Then he went back and beat him some more; still he would not fall. The bell sounded.

Monticello Basketball Team Preparing For a Great Season.

The champion Monticello A. A. basketball team are again preparing for a successful season. Last season this team deefated Howard University, of Washington, D. C., in a closely contested game for the championship. Monticello has practically the same men as last season with the addition of H. Houston, of Stanford Normal, Houston played forward on last season's normal team. The team is again captained by C. Posey, star forward, of Pennsylvania State College varsity team of 1910 and 1911. The Monticello team will play the Alpha Club of New York City in New York on Christmas night. Teams in this vicinity desiring games address Richmond Garrison, manager Monticello A. A., 2437 Wylie avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN CLUB, DENVER, COLO.

An observer recently in Denver, Colo., expressed surprise at the cosmopolitan spirit displayed by the colored people. To use his own language:

"Well, I am surprised! I had no idea Denver was such a place—so cosmopolitan and that the colored people had such an ideal and hospitable place where strangers were made welcome."

This club has a two-story building consisting of twenty rooms neatly furnished from top to bottom, which is the work of Mr. Victor Walker, the popular and energetic president of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Association. It was he who conceived and carried out the plans of this commodious club and managed its affairs so satisfactorily and successfully since its organization in April, 1910.

Gymnasium.

The gymnasium is the leading feature of the association. It has an equipment of boxing gloves, punching bags, dumb bells, wall machines, Indian clubs, medicine balls, etc., costing $500.

In connection with the gymnasium, the association has three baths. They are fitted with shower. Besides these there is a vapor bath, and attendants are provided for those who wish a massage.

On entering the club the visitor first comes to an imposing staircase leading to the quarters for lodging on the second floor. Here are provided accommodations by the day or week for men, members of the club and visitors to the city. The bedrooms are simply but elegantly furnished. Mission furniture, brass beds and high-grade carpets are provided for comfort and convenience.

The reading room is the first entered down-stairs. In it are found "The Denver Independent," the leading race journal of the West, the largest and best colored newspapers from all parts of the country, the daily papers, good magazines and books. In it also is placed the piano. Musical talent is found in plenty among the members. Its quartette is one of the famous singing organizations in the city. It is in this room that sweet melody has its home, and on some occasions it is crowded to its capacity.

The whist room has five tables. They are always in use. Denver prides itself upon the great skill of its players, many of whom are members of the association.

The Buffet is the special pride of the association. Its servitors are the best in the city. Its stock is all high grade. This happy combination has given it an enviable reputation which it is always careful to maintain.

The lunch room is a convenience which has meant much to the members of the association. It is in the hands of an experienced chef. Its cuisine is ample and at your service at any hour of the day or night.

The pool and billiard hall is also a feature. It is plain to see that Denver has it on most cities, as it concerns this phase of its life.

PUT THE CHAMP IN JAIL.

Fought for Liberty, But It Was In a Battle Royal—Jack Johnson the Objective—He Went Down for the Count—His Mother One of His Sureties—Gets Out of Jail, Gets Right Back In Again.

(By Billy Lewis.)

When William Jennings Bryan was making one of his acceptation speeches of the nomination for the presidency tendered him by the Democratic party, he said that it was best that he should confine himself to a written speech; not because of those immediately in front of him, but because of that vast constituency whose limitations run with those of the country. He wanted those to get him faithfully. It is similar in this case. It is necessary to give very much of what is known about the Jack Johnson case notwithstanding it is ancient history to those of the greater cities, where they have the press facilities. The Freeman's constituency is also in the out-of-the-way places as well as in the greater cities. These depend on The Freeman for all information of the kind.

What Has Happened to Johnson.

I left Johnson standing before the great "bar of judgment" last week, where the question of to be or not to be was uppermost in his mind and in the mind of many, many others. "Mene, Mene, tekel upharison," one of a theological turn of mind doubtless thought. He was being weighed in the balance, and I am sorry to announce to our far-away readers that they thought to find him wanting—they put him in. They put Johnson right in the jail house when his pockets were bulging out with bank notes and the miscellaneous coin of the realm. And right here is a fine opportunity for an exegesis on the vanity of great possessions; but this is not meant as a sermon. It is a little of everything. It's a terrapin. A terrapin is an animal, by common consent, that is made up of all the meats, so said.

It was hardly necessary to hatch a case to illustrate the impotency of money. There are enough real happenings transpiring, right along, which ca nwell illustrate the point. For here was not a natural case but an artificial one. I say this, thinking that perhaps the case may be cited to adorn a future tale or to point a moral.

Money at times has no value, a fact which keeps the world sane and sweet. The few men of big purses fill all the land with their names, and to some extent illustrate greed and restlessness of the human family. We are likely to think that the total world is in turmoil along the line, when there are satisfied millions who crave merely peace, content, who think of great money pretensions as no less than vulgarity. Where there is deep, abiding love, and that sympathy its near semblance money has no value beyond its power to still the ordinary wants.

But to what happened to Jack Johnson. Here follows what happened, as culled from the daily papers, up until the time of going to press:

CHICAGO.—Ordering his lawyers about like a trust magnate, Jack Johnson, Negro champion heavyweight pugilist and now a prisoner in the Cook county jail, determined today to carry his fight for release on bonds at once to the supreme court of the United States. He will attack the constitutionality of the Mann act, which he is charged with having violated in bringing a woman from Pittsburgh to Chicago for unlawful purposes.

Attorney Benjamin C. Bachrach will leave for Washington tomorrow to present the pugilist's petition at its regular weekly session Monday. The determination to carry the fight to the court of last resort followed a refusal by Judge Carpenter, of the United States district court today to releast Johnson on a writ of habeas corpus.

Beaten round by round in his efforts in the lower court to secure acceptance of a cash bond or bail offered by a surety company, the black champion tonight in his cell with his face buried in his famous fighting hands, was the picture of despair. The buoyant confidence which he had previously displayed in the power of his money to extricate him from difficulties appeared to have left him.

Prosecution is Confident.

It became known today that the department of justice had unearthed evidence, not only that Johnson caused Belle Schreiber, the white weman named in the indictment, to come to Chicago, but that he set up in "business" as part owner of a resort in the south side levee.

"When the case against 'Jack' Johnson is presented to a jury it will not even be open to dispute," said a government lawyer. "There could not be a plainer case of white slavery in violation of the Mann act."

CHICAGO.—United States Judge Carpenter this afternoon refused $40,000 cash bail for Jack Johnson, champion pugilist, confined in the county jail awaiting trial on charges of violating the Mann act. The $40,000 cash bond was offered by counsel for Johnson. When it was refused the lawyers announced that new sureties would be offered the government tomorrow.

CLEVELAND, O.—Claiming that he had been appealed to by Jack Johnson to help secure the latter's release from the Chicago prison, where Johnson is held under indictment for alleged violation of the Mann white slave act, C. J. Crawford appealed to Assistant United States District Attorney Haddon today to know if bond for Johnson could be filed here. Crawford said certain Cleveland Negroes are willing to furnish bond for Johnson's release, and that their sureties would qualify for property in excess of $100,000. Haddon expressed the opinion that United States Judge Carpenter, before whom Johnson's case is being conisdered, might approve the bond. Crawford tonight mailed a letter to Johnson, saying that Cleveland Negroes are desirous of liberating him, and said that action would be delayed until a reply was received.

CHICAGO.—No better illustration of the sentiment of the people of Chicago toward Jack Johnson, Negro prize fighter, can be had than the events of yesterday, when business men and property owners one after another refused to go on his bond.

For eight hours Johnson's lawyers and friends scurried around the city in a frantic endeavor to get two real estate owners to go on hi sbond for $30,000, the condition being that the bondsmen were not to be paid for their services.

For those eight hours Mrs. Tiny Johnson, the pugilist's mother, and his two sisters waited anxiously in the office of United States Attorney Wilkerson. When the office closed for the day Johnson was still in the county jail, and the women, with the friends who had remained at their side, went home discouraged.

The net result of a day of desperate effort on the part of the Negro's lawyers and friends was that the United States attorney had not approved so much as one dollar's worth of the sureties offered.

CHICAGO.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist, accused of violation of the Mann white slave act, was released from custody today before Judge Carpenter in the United States district court in bonds of $30,000.

The sureties accepted were the pugilist's mother, Mrs. Tiny Johnson, and Matthew S. Baldwin, real estate dealer. Johnson was taken to the county jail last Friday and since had made many efforts to regain his freedom.

As Johnson was leaving the federal building he was arrested on a charge of having attacked a newspaper photographer last Friday when he was entering the county jail. The pugilist was taken to a police station and a cash bond of $400 was accepted. Later the photographer filed a suit asking for $10,000 damages from Johnson.

Perhaps it will be juts as well to give the sidelights in the Johnson matter as others are doing. Here is something seen in public print not long since:

Milholland's Telegram to The Chicago Tribune.

Joseph Medill Patterson, "The Tribune," Chicago, Ill.:

If you can persuade the Governor to call out the state militia, I might try to induce President Taft to mobilize the army in Cook county, and the fleet on Lake Michigan. This with the attorney-general in personal charge of federal prosecution would possibly protect chaste Chicago and immaculate Minneapolis from the demoralizing influence of that hell-loathed creature, Jack Johnson, whose primary offense of failing to get himself born white, has been supplemented by daring to become the gamest and most scientific fighter since Castor and Pollox and, finally, by venturing upon a love affair without the consent of all the common councils and boards of trade in Illinois and Minnesota.

The spectacle of two great American cities lashing themselves into the fury of a Georgia lynching mob, over an alleged offense as deplorably common among whites as campaign lying, is a record exhibition to this old gray world of canting hypocracy, especially on the part of a nation with three million mulattoes, quadroons and octoroons among its native-born population, and that has made wife swapping and divorce an established institution. As a display of mediaeval race prejudice it tiptoes up to the Jew baiting of King John's time in old England. It disgraces the most backward civilization. It is contemptible beyond expression, and as much worse than Johnson's alleged offense as the Armenian massacres or Russian atrocities surpass in degree a barroom row down in Bath House John's bailiwick.

$3.50 RECIPE FREE, FOR WEAK MEN.

SEND NAME AND ADDRESS TODAY—YOU CAN HAVE IT FREE AND BE STRONG AND VIGOROUS.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous delibity, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, failing memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains, or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men, and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence, so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop drugging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest-acting restorative, upbuilding, SPOT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 3831 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid reciept in a plain ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $3.00 to $5.00 for merely writing out a prescription like this—but I send it entirely free.

JACK JOHNSON.

Judge Refused Cash Bond—Feared the Champ Might Leave Country.

CHICAGO.—"Jack" Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, was in tears at 9 o'clock the other night when he was led handcuffed to a United States deputy marshal, accompanied by two others as a guard, to a cell.

As Johnson was entering his cell in the county jail he made a vicious attack on a newspaper photographer. Johnson was handcuffed to Deputy Marshal Northrup. He had one free hand in which he carried a cane. He struck the photographer with his cane, jumping ten feet toward him and dragging Northrup after him. Then he subsided and was locked up.

The commitment had been made out hours earlier, but was held up in order to give Johnson an opportunity to obtain a bond that would meet favor with Federal Judge Landis and United States District Attorney Wilkerson.

Johnson was forced to remove all of his clothing, which was subjected to a careful search. He was assigned to a cell in an upper tier. He objected to the location and was told he would have to take what was given him in jail.

"I want a dozen candles so I can have more light, a box of cigars and a case of champagne," said Johnson.

"You can't have them," he was told.

"You're not as accommodating as they were in San Francisco," Johnson replied. "I got everything I wanted there."

Finally Johnson asked for a bottle of milk, and this was given to him.

"This is awful coarse work," sobbed the pugilist, "but many a better man than Jack Johnson has been in that jail. After I was put in jail in San Francisco I got a thousand dollars a day for every day I served. I got it on the stage after I got out. I'll make this pay just as much. I was in New York playing at Hammerstein's on August 10, 1910, the day they say I brought this Schreiber girl into this state. After that I played in Brooklyn for a week. I never transported her anywhere."

Though temporarily released the other night, Johnson appeared in the morning before Judge Landis, confident that his bond would be approved. He was surprised when District Attorney Wilkerson opposed the acceptance.

District Attorney Wilkerson explained to the court that the property scheduled had been given recently by Johnson to his mother; that it was not adequate. Mr. Wilkerson said he understood that Johnson intended leaving this country on November 30 if he obtained his release. The offense with which Johnson is charged is not subject to extradition.

"I am opposed to taking a cash bond," continued the prosecutor. I want two men of good character who have unincumbered real estate and who believe that Johnson would remain here and stand trial to come forward and present a bond.

The court took the same view. Johnson, who had been represented by Edward Morris, called David Bachrach, another attorney, into the case and began scurrying again for bondsmen. Tony May, Albert C. Jones and S. Lewinsohn, professional bondsmen, were presented. It did not take Judge Landis long to learn that they were already on bonds for many thousands of dollars; that their alleged real estate was in their wives' names, and that they expected to receive $300 each for going on Johnson's bond. They were driven out of court.

Albert C. Jones, who attempted to qualify as one of the pugilist's bondsman, was held in $10,000 bail on a charge of perjury after it had been shown that he had scheduled property which under the name of "A. Charles Jones" he previously had deeded to his wife. Jones had not found a bondsman when the day session closed and he was remanded to the custody of the United States marshal, along with Johnson.

"This attempt to foist worthless bonds on this court is disgusting," said Judge Landis. "Here are men who have transferred their property to their wives and then wait until a bond is forfeited to record the deed."

Belle Schreiber, the woman Johnson is accused of bringing into the state in violation of the Mann act, is the daughter of a Milwaukee policeman. She was employed as a manicure in a hotel in that city when Johnson met her. She preceded Mrs. Etta Duryea in the affections of the pugilist. Johnson continued to associate with her after his marriage with Mrs. Duryea. She was his vaudeville combination after the Reno fight. She was finally abandoned by Johnson and at that time threatened to get even with him. She has been a willing witness and is held in seclusion here by government detectives. The Schreiber woman is twenty-four years of age.

Mrs. Katherine Dorsey, who conducted a flat on Grand boulevard and is accused of introducing white girls to wealthy Negroes, was arrested the other day after a long hunt. She was discovered living over a barn. She is wanted in the Lucile Cameorn case. The latter lived in the Dorsey flat for some time.

Several other charges against Johnson are to be investigated by the grand jury, it is said.

District Attorney Wilkerson said he intended to put Johnson on trial as soon as possible.

FEVER DESTROYED HER HAIR

Two years ago I had fever which took out all my hair, I used your Pomade and now have a nice head of hair, long and thick. I owe it to your Pomade, writes Mrs. L. Garrett, 3619 Dearborn St. Chicago, Ill.

Ford's Hair Pomade is the old time tried remedy for harsh and unruly hair, that has been giving satisfaction for over fifty years. Ford's Royal White Skin Lotion is a highly antiseptic, non-irritant skin remedy. It makes the skin whiter immediately upon application. Ask your druggist about these remedies. Be sure and get Ford's, manufactured by the Ozonized Ox Marrow Company, Chicago, Ill.

For sale by Ferger's drug store, Vaughn Bros. drug store, Pink's Pharmacy, Eureka drug store, Hadley Bros., druggists; Robt. P. Blodau, James H. Noe, Graves Pharmacy, Geraldine Pharmacy.

The Colonial and Grand theaters seat their colored patrons in the back rows of the balcony. We are sorry to say that the rows are often full. Our self-respect should count for more than an hour's cheap entertainment. Put in a protest.

All public places, such as theaters, picture shows and lunch rooms, are licensed by the city. These licenses can be revoked if the places are not run according to the law. There is a civil rights law providing for the treatment of all people in such places.

It has been said that we wish to make lawyers and painters of our boys. We have Mr. Scott, not merely a painter, but a recognized artist. We have great hopes of Joe Davis, who was art editor at Shortridge last year. Mr. Davis is now a freshman at Indiana University. Give the young people a chance to develop the best in them.

MME. PATTI ANITA BROWN

And Others Entertained—Guests of Mme. C. J. Walker.

Mme. C. J. Walker entertained at breakfast Sunday morning in honor of Mrs. Annie W. Blackwell, of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mme. Patti Anita Brown, of Chicago, Ill. After reading the thirty-third Psalm, Mrs. Blackwell led in the usual Sunday morning prayer, after which the invited guests partook of the sumptuous repast prepared by Mrs. Parthenia Rollins, known in the household as grandma. The guests present were Mme. Patti Anita Brown, Mr. Brown, Miss Berry, of Dallas, Tex., and Mrs. Annie Blackwell. The menu consisted of grape fruit, wine sauce, quail on toast, served on lettuce, lamb's liver and bacon, spring onions, radishes, Dixie biscuits, sliced tomatoes, coffee, tea and fruit. After breakfast, Mme. Brown and her party were carried to Allen chapel by Mme. Walker in her electric runabout.

BETHEL CHURCH NOTES.

The services at Bethel church last Sunday were all that could be desired. In the morning Dr. Smythe preached on "Some Lessons to Be Learned from the Story of Naaman." In the evening his subject was "Conquering Faith." The collection for the day was over $80.

In the afternoon the Young People's Forum was addressed by Mr. W. E. Viney followed by Dr. Langston and Mr. Harry Jackson, who rendered two excellent selections.

Tomorrow morning Bishop John Hurst, resident bishop of Florida, will preach. In the evening the Christian Endeavor will observe Catherine Blackburn day, when several of the best local talent will participate. Miss Blackburn is a missionary to Africa.

THE A. M. E. ZION CHURCH.

The general public is asked to worship with the members and friends of Jones' Tabernacle on Sunday, November 24, because of the character of the services. It is the "Harvest Home," a service at which time appropriate thanks may be offered to the Master for material and spiritual blessings which have come to us this year. To make it all the more vivid the committees have decided to make a specialty of decorating the church with all kinds of vegetables. The services will also be made as spiritual and helpful as possible. The pastor will speak at 11 o'clock a. m., from Mal. 3:10; at 3 p. m., there will be an old fashioned closed doors class meeting, and at night the pastor will speak for the benefit of the unsaved.

On Monday evening the "Harvest Home" festival will conclude this service.

On Thursday, November 28, Thanksgiving, the entire membership is asked to be present to listen to the truth, which is to be presented by the Rev. F. G. Brookins, B. D. At noon will be the Thanksgiving dinner and you are asked to eat dinner with us. At 8 p. m., the choir will render a musical, the like of which we haven't had before. The price is reasonable and you must come.

IN FOOTBALL CIRCLES.

The All-Stars and the Columbia Giants will play football Sunday afternoon at Brighton Beach park. The teams represent the western and eastern sections of the city. Both teams are composed of some former college and high school gridiron players. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

The game of the season among local independents will be the clash of the Y. M. C. A. and Flanner Guild. The Guild under the superintendency of D. D. Morgan, made the griliron game popular among local youngsters several years ago. The Y. M. C. A. eleven, although in its infancy in football, has a strong aggregation, especially on the offensive. It defeated the All-Highs, a high school aggregation, last week in one of the most stubbornly fought games ever played among the colored elevens in this city. It resembled a secondary college game more than an independent game. The score was 6 to 0.

THE "Y"—ALL-HIGH PUNTS.

The "Y" pushed the oval to one foot of the All-High's goal in the first quarter, but failed to penetrate the high school's line on the fourth down.

George Hazard received six out of eight forward passes for gain of four, ten to thirty yards for the "Y."

Had Capt. Lee Floyd made a better selection of the man to receive some of his well-thrown forward passes, the score might have been much larger.

The King brothers made some long gains on end runs at right and left halfbacks.

Chester Baker, the smallest man in the game, was one of the swiftest runners and surest tacklers.

Captain Floyd successfully used Sheldon's special. Floyd seems to believe in open play.

The All-Highs had several new faces—freshmen from Shortridge and Manual.

Coach Wilson believes that the All-Highs will give their next opponents a hard fight. The All-Highs are scheduled to play Central high school Thanksgiving Day.

THE GUILD TEAM.

The Flanner Guild eleven is captained by Stewart Ellert, who at one time was without an equal at quarterback. Several of the old Guild stars are in the ranks of the present squad. The Guild will meet the Y. M. C. A. Thanksgiving Day.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Watch for the Y. M. C. A. quartette. They will appear before the public in a very short time. They are now in training.

The Y. M. C. A. football team defeated the strong team of the All-Highs last Friday afternoon by the close score of 5 to 0. On Thanksgiving afternoon there will be played at Brighton Beach park, what is believed to be the hardest game of the season for the Y. M. C. A. team. The Flanner Guild football team, composed of the football stars of the city, will be the opponents of the Y. M. C. A. team.

What is believed to be the greatest membership campaign ever conducted by the Colored Men's Branch of the Y. M. C. A. of Indianapolis, has just ended, as far as the team work is concerned. The campaign was launched with the avowed purpose of bringing the membership up to 400. In order to do that 145 new members were necessary, when the final counts were made the bulletin showed nineteen more than was needed to reach the 400 mark, giving the association a total membership of 413. It was then decided to extend the campaign until Monday, November 25, for the benefit of many and to bring the membership up to 500. According to the National Association statistics of 1911 and 1912, Atlanta, Ga., has the largest colored membership in the world, 425. It is the hope of the Indianapolis Y. M. C. A t ohave the largest colored men's branch in the world. Indianapolis now takes second place in the colored branches of the Y. M. C. A. There was a deal of competition existing between the captains and teams. G. L. Knox team 17 won first place, 26 members and 47 points. Dr. E. N. Perkins team 10, second place, 21 members and 38 points. C. C. Bowers team 7, third place, 22 members and 37 points. In the individual contest, C .C. Bowers won first with 10 members and 20 points; B. L. Hudson, second, 10 members and 18 points; Elwood Knox, third, 8 members and 16 points. At the close of the campaign all the members of the association, headed by their band, will parade the streets in honor of the great victory won by the association. Additional accounts will appear in the next issue.

The Monster Meeting last Sunday was a great treat to those present. The Rev. J. R. Louderback, of Roanoke, Va., was the speaker of the afternoon. There was a very large audience of men present. Miss Adelaide Thomas sang a very beautiful solo. The Y. M. C. A. orchestra furnished the splendid musical numbers, which are delighting to those who come.

The Rev. Chas. Parkins has been engaged as the speaker for Sunday, November 25. Come early and hear the concert rendered by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra. Miss Grace Browdie will render a solo as the special number of the program.

The Bible school is giving great satisfaction to those attending.

AT KENTUCKY'S CAPITAL.

Knights of Pythias Bound for Lexington—State Federation of Women to Meet at Danville—Swell Carnation Ball—The Calumet Theater—Grim Reaper in Our Midst—Prof. James Gives Wedding Reception.

By Hardin Tolbert, at Peoples' Pharmacy, Both Phones 666, Box 233.

FRANKFORT, Ky., (Special).

The Knights of Pythias of the Seventh congressional district will meet at Lexington, November 24, in Jackson hall, for the purpose of making new members. Each lodge will bring a large number of new joiners. Special interurban cars will leave here with perhaps the largest delegation of the whole district. An effort is being put forth to make this meeting add five hundred new members to the district. Souvenir buttons are being presented to those desiring to become members, which read: "Are you a K. of P.? If not, why not?" This question has caused quite a sensation among the young men. A large number were examined at Dr. C. W. Anderson's office, where Drs. E. E. Underwood and C. W. Anderson did the examining.

The State Federation of Women's Clubs will meet in Danville, on Friday and Saturday, after Thanksgiving. A large gathering of energetic Christian workers will meet at Danville, to discuss the great problem of race development, which concerns the welfare of every person of the race, and it behooves them all to be on the alert and be at Danville and help swell the crowd for such a great movement. The slogan cry should be voiced by every loyal member of the race, for this meeting marks a great epoch in the records of the Federation of Women's Clubs in Central Kentucky, for the next meeting is likely to be in the western part of the state. The delegation from this city is expected to be the best in the state as usual. These faithful women are bending all their energy toward making Frankfort the best. Mrs. Daisy Saffell is putting forth a strenuous effort to make Shelbyville lead any city of its size, for the best work.

IN OLD "PADUKE."

Revival Meeting—Rev. E. W. Houston Given Ovation—Fraternal News and Others Notes.

By J. J. Amos, 1063 N. Seventh St.

Paducah, Ky., Special.

One of the most successful revivals of many churches went on last week at the Seventh Street Baptist church. Rev. O. Griffin, of Cairo, Ill., conducted the services....Last week Paducah was fortunate enough to have in its midst the Rev. C. W. Houston, a noted student of Bowling Green....After attending the Presbyterian synod at Mayfield and remaining a few hours at Hickory Grove, Rev. Houston came to our city and on Tuesday night preached a wonderful sermon at the Cumberland Presbyterian church. The congregation present paid him quite earnest and appreciative attention. He was the guest of Mr. Wm. Robertson, 822 Boyd street....Lincoln high school and Garfield school were honored by the presence and remarks of Rev. Houston this week. In honor of his stay in our city the young people entertained him Friday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bradley, 1404 Clay street. Pleasant remarks were made by Rev. Houston and Rev. C. G. Rowlett, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Twenty-five persons were present, and they all with common consent pronounced it the best social gathering of the season. Mr. Willie Robertson sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold." There was a reading by Mrs. Lucy Geiger and Mrs. Oscar Trice. A two-course menu was served....Mrs. E. Grundy has resigned his position as a teacher at Lincoln high school, and has gone to his new position at Gary, Ind. Mr. Grundy is a graduate of the school in which he taught. Three cheeds for old Kentucky's son. May success be his for the remaining years of his life. ....Mr. Charles Baker and family, who lived at Brookfort, Ill., are now making their home in Chicago....Miss Lydia Robertson has returned from Lone Joy and St. Louis, where she visited Mrs. Percy Hemingway and Mrs. John De Bow....Mr. Will Townsend, of 1227 Clay street, is greatly improved, though he is still unable to be at work. We hope to see him recover soon....Mrs. Will Diggs, of 424 North Thirteenth street, has returned from Mayfield.... Mrs. Hannah Keys, formerly of Paducah, but recently a resident of Chicago, is visiting relatives and friends in this city. We wish she would remain in our city....Mrs. Jane Machen is visiting her family. During the past year or two she has been living in the Windy City....Mrs. Clifton Bibwell has gone to Centralia to see her husband, Mr. Clifton Bidwell He isa real soprano singer of merit. The Philharmonic quartet wishes Mr. and Mrs. Bidwell much success and would like to sing with them again....For something new, just ask those boys who were initiated into the new K. of P. lodge last Thursday night....By the business activity of our district deputy, Sir James Buford, twenty-one candidates were iniated into the new K. of P. lodge, known as the Echo. Following are the officers of the new lodge: C. C., Sir Bane Barton; V. C., Arch Hendon; M. of A., Marion Lunderman; K. of R. and S., James R. Little; M. of E., Silas Lott; Prel., Vontreece Bacon; M. A., Ed M. Stone; E. P., Dr. S. H. George; Trustees, Sirs Will Dink, Lee Tandy and John Poor. Sir James Buford is a member of the oldest K. of P. lodge in the city, Cymboline, No. 19. This is the mother lodge, of course. Mother, you have done well; bring in some more boys!....Sure, you can get the Freeman every week of J. J. Amos, at 1063 North Seventh street.

WILSON FORGETS POLITICS.

President-Elect Greeted by a High Wind in Bermuda.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Nov. 19.—President-elect Wilson declared today that he was beginning to forget politics. Mrs. Wilson and the other members of the family have been busily engaged in unpacking. The injury received by Mr. Wilson in an automobile accident before the election does not trouble him any more. The plaster covering the wound on his head came off today, showing that the abrasion had healed. Terrific winds prevailed here today.

The Occult School of Science has appropriated a large fund for the FREE distribution of a remarkable book entitled—

MYSTERIES OF OCCULT WONDERS REVEALED OR MAN'S FUTURE FORETOLD

This book lays bare many astounding facts concerning the practice of the world's greatest seers and psychics, and explains a wonderful system for the development of personal magnetism and telepathic powers.

Practical character reading is made plain.

A new, famous educational institution describes a simple method of absolutely reading the secret desires and thouhts of others even if they are thousands of miles away. The greatest writers, psychic seers and scientists have made this power plain to you today without cost or price.

Whether rich or poor you shase in this wonderful gift as money is no consideration.

We want to introduce this wonderful power to everyone.

THOSE IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES HAVE BEEN BENEFITTED

One person in Australia wrote: "Your system is remarkable! And your book explains implicitly the rules set forth so that failure is impossible."

Mysteries of OCCULT Wonders Revealed
OR MAN'S FUTURE FORETOLD
OCCULT SCHOOL

No person, no matter whether high or low in life, can doubt the great power of the great occult force. Many people in utter ignorance of this phenomena owe their great success to this wonderful occult power and the OCCULT SCHOOL OF SCIENCE is determined to place this wonderful knowledge within the grasp of all without regard to class or creed.

The information heretofore possessed by the few, in addition to supplying this wonderful book FREE to each person who writes AT ONCE, will be sent in such a simplified form that it will astonish the world's greatest scientists as well as those who are ignorant of this great force.

DO YOU DESIRE to fascinate men and women, to have that strange, mysterious power charms and shapes their thoughts and controls their destinies; makes you supreme master of every situation, and wins the friendship and love of others, gratifies your ambitions, increases your income, disperses worry and trouble, banishes domestic unhappiness and develops magnetic power that will enable you to overcome all obstacles to your success.

Remember, you send NOT ONE CENT for this great book.

BUT in order to supply a copy to interested persons a limited number has been issued to show the possibilities of this great psychic force which learned men claim rules the destinies of man.. After this edition is exhausted, the price will be one dollar.
